FOUR BIG BROTHERHOODS OFFER R. R. PLAN

RAIL STRIKE IN LONDON SETTLED

PLAN DRASTIC ACTION

Trades Union Leaders Are Contemplating Proceedings to Deal With Revolutionary Move Leading to Unauthorized Walkouts.

London, Feb. 7.—It is unofficially stated that a satisfactory settlement of the London railway dispute has been reached. It is said the settlement includes the tubes and all London railway systems.

Londoners have not known another week so demoralizing to business since the air raid week in September, 1917, when there was a bombardment of the city almost every night. The trouble has been due to strikes by railroad workers.

Many thousands of commuters, depending on the Southwestern and Brighton railroads to get them to town, arrived at their stations to find there were no trains. The people soon gave up hope of reaching the city and finally returned home.

Government Steps Into Gap.

Several other local stoppages in transit were reported. In Southwestern England most of the people were kept away from work by an extension of the strike. The government stepped into the gap, using several hundred motor lorries to convey workers from outskirts of London, giving them free rides to their business places.

The cabinet was in session and Sir Albert H. Stanley, president of the Board of Trade, conferred with the Locomotive Engineers' and Firemen's associations at the Board of Trade.

A statement was made on behalf of the cabinet saying the government stood by its policy of non-interference. Union Leaders Plan Action.

Following the lead taken by the Amalgamated Society of Engineers in suspending the district committee of Belfast, the Clyde and London for violating the rules of the organization by participating in unauthorized strikes the trade union leaders of the United Kingdom are contemplating further drastic action in dealing with the revolutionary movement leading to the independent strikes in England, Scotland and Ireland.

SECRETARY ORDERS INQUIRY

War Department Employee Said to Have Been Bribed.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Secretary of War Baker told the Senate public buildings committee that the department of justice had been asked to investigate the charge that J. Wilton Trainor, a war department employee, solicited $100,000 as a fee for work in connection with the Chicago Speedway hospital project.

The charge was made by William S. Bennett, counsel for the Chicago Construction company, which built the hospital.

PACKERS AIDED CAMPAIGNS

Swift & Co. Helped Illinois and Kansas Candidates.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Swift & Co. contributed to the campaign funds of Representative Rodenburg of Illinois in 1912 and Representative Taggart of Kansas in 1915. Henry Veeder, counsel for Swift & Co., testified in cross-examination by Francis J. Heney before the Senate agriculture committee. Mr. Veeder said these were the only cases he knew of in which such contributions were made.

STRIKE TIES UP NEWSPAPERS

Havans Unions Appeal to President Menocal for Solution.

Havana, Feb. 7.—The strike of the employees of the mechanical departments of the newspapers continue and no newspapers were published. A committee of five representing the 37 unions which conducted the last general strike called on President Menocal to request him to find a solution for the strike.

RIOTS IN UPPER AUSTRIA

Considerable Damage Has Resulted in Town of Linz.

London, Feb. 7.—Disorders continue in the district of Linz, Upper Austria and the town has been damaged to the extent of many millions of kroner according to an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Vienna.

W. W. ATTERBURY
Director General of American Railways in France.

Maj. Gen. W. W. Atterbury, as director general of American railways in France, will play an important part in the reconstruction work of the French nation. He formerly was vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad.

EMBARGO IS UPHELD

Senators Defend British Limitation of Imports.

Resolutions Looking to Protest by State Department is Sent to Calendar.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Discussion in the senate of the new British import embargo swung to defense of the British policy of protecting her industries and the weeks resolution looking to a protest to London by the state department was displaced and sent to the senate calendar. Its further consideration will require a majority vote.

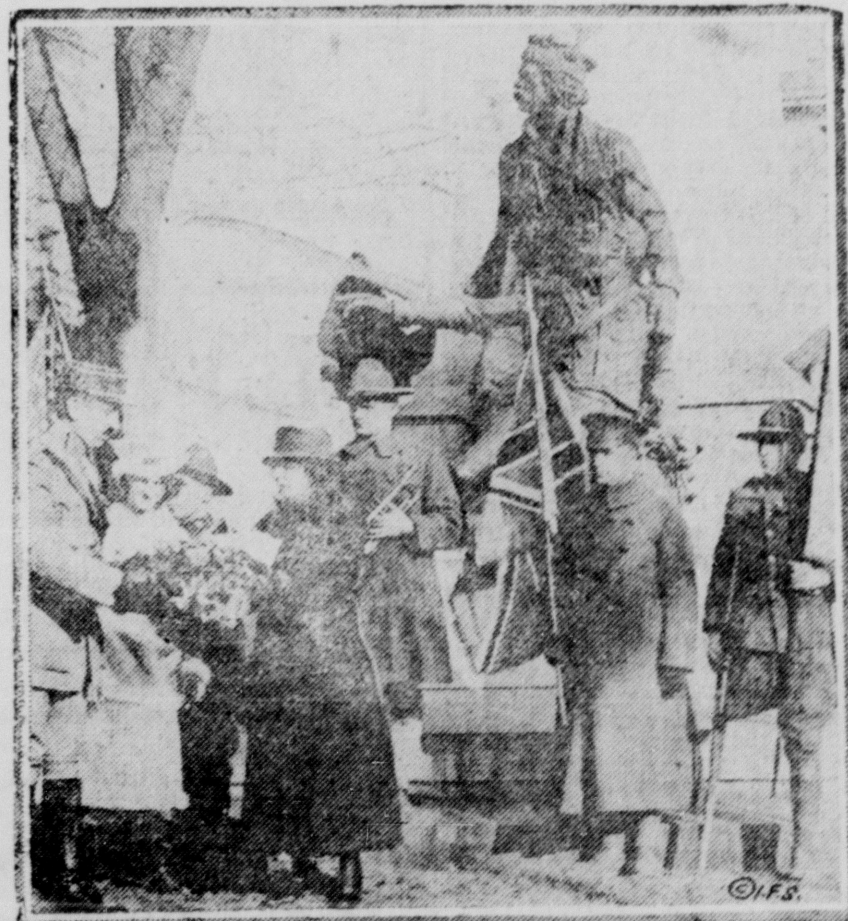

Senators King of Utah, Democrat, and Poindester of Washington and McCumber of North Dakota led in contending that England was justified in defending her industries.

Despite the reference of his resolution to the calendar, Senator Weeks said he planned at the first opportunity to call it up again, confident of favorable action.

In defense of the British policy, Senator Poindester said: "Taking the large impartial view, I think Great Britain was justified. We ought to look out for our interests as France and England are entitled to look out for theirs."

"I protest," said Mr. McCumber, "against criticising any nation for doing exactly what we have been doing or will do."

Memorial Services for Polish Heroes Held in Front of Kosciuszko Monument in Washington

Memorial services were held recently in front of the Kosciuszko monument in Washington by representatives of the allied and American armies for the soldiers of the little Polish army who fell while fighting the Hun. Mile. Rose Szewc, formerly secretary to Ignace Jan Paderewski, world-famous pianist and now leader of the new Polish republic, presented a laurel wreath to Lieutenant Lafut, who placed it at the base of the monument. Bugler Dangler of the Walter Reed Hospital blew taps for the Polish heroes.

GOVERNMENT TAKES STEPS TO BRING DOWN THE PRICES

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The government took steps today to bring down the prices of all commodities. Officials representing all departments headed by Secretary Redfield, cabled President Wilson, asking he appoint a committee to act as government industries board in peace times.

New Tax Bill Averages $60 for Every Person in Country

(By L. C. MARTIN)

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The records of the treasury department and the appropriations committee of the house and senate today showed why congress is about to enact the biggest tax bill in history. A six billion dollar revenue measure that will take an average of sixty dollars this year and forty next year from every individual of the nation one hundred million population. These records show that the government will cost the people eighteen billion dollars this fiscal year and ten billion dollars for the fiscal year 1920. The tax bill now before congress raises only one third of the amount required, and there is only one other place to get it—through the sale of bonds. Therefore there will probably be bond issues in 1919 and 1920, possibly two this year.

League of Nations Commission Increases Membership.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The conference commission on a society of nations issued an official statement saying it had decided that representatives of Czechoslovakia, Greece, Poland and Roumania would be associated in its deliberations. This is in keeping with the decision to give four additional places on the commission to the smaller powers.

Hal Chase Is Cleared.

New York, Feb. 7.—Hal Chase, stormy petrel of baseball, was cleared on the charge of "throwing" games preferred against him by the Cincinnati club. He was declared "not guilty" by President John A. Heydler of the National league, who acted as judge, after a week's study of the evidence for and against him. "It is no where established that the accused was interested in any pool or wager that caused any game to result otherwise than on its merits," said Heydler in his decision.

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 7.—Government ownership of railroads with operation jointly by the government workers and railroad officials was proposed today by the four big brotherhoods.

The brotherhoods' plan provides for government ownership with a guaranteed interest return, probably four per cent, the creation of an operating corporation without capital controlled by the board of directors, labor, railroad officials, and the president of the United States, each naming one-third, wage disputes to be adjusted by a committee organized on the same basis. Profit sharing by employer out of the net revenue, one-half to go to the government. Rates to be lowered under certain conditions.

Seattle Completely Paralyzed by Strike

(By United Press)

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 7.—The morning of the second day of Seattle's general strike found the city almost completely paralyzed. The streets and homes were lighted last night through the efforts of volunteer workers. Eighteen soup kitchens operated by the strikers fed long lines of hungry men. There have been no disorders so far. On one hand there are sixty thousand strikers, and on the other United States regular army trucks armed with machine guns and the police with machine guns mounted on trucks.

Ship Builders Strike in Delaware Yards

(By United Press)

Trenton, N. J.—A strike that threatens to tie up every ship building yard on the Delaware river was called at Harriman. More than eight thousand employees walked out.

READY FOR EMERGENCY

Federal Troops are on Duty at Tacoma and Seattle.

General Strike of Practically All Trades Has Resulted in Paralyzing Business.

Seattle, Feb. 7.—Regular troops from Camp Lewis are quartered in Tacoma and Seattle to "stand ready for any emergency," as army officers said, arising from the general strike of 45,000 union men in sympathy with 25,000 shipyard workers who went out Jan. 21 to enforce demands for higher pay.

Brigadier General John L. Hayden commands the contingent of 800 soldiers in Seattle, and Brig. Gen. Frank B. Watson has under him in Tacoma, 26 miles from here, two battalions and a machine gun company.

Authority for the use of troops was granted by Secretary of War Baker upon advice from Governor Lister of the situation in Tacoma and Seattle.

Thirty-five thousand union men in the vicinity of Seattle quit work, labor leaders said, but in Tacoma response was not so general. The principal industries involved were the carmen, timber workers, barbers and retail clerks. Street cars stopped running in Seattle, schools closed, restaurants and theaters closed their doors, newspapers suspended and other industries ceased operating. Barber shops closed and elevators stopped running.

Chorus Girl, Who is Suing Marshall Field Estate for $100,000, and Her Baby Son Henry

Asserting that the late Henry Field, grandson of Marshall Field, the great Chicago merchant, was the father of her son now two years old, Peggy Marsh, a former chorus girl, has brought an action in the Probate Court in Chicago for $100,000 for the support of herself and child. The suit is against the Field estate. She alleges that young Field, who married Miss Nancy Perkins, niece of the Langhorne sisters of Virginia, agreed to pay her that sum. Miss Marsh met Field in London.

SOVIETS AGREE TO CONFERENCE

Russ Anarchists Express Willingness to Meet Allied Delegation at Princes' Islands.

ASK DATE BE NAMED

Are Ready to Enter Agreement With Entente on Condition That Latter Will Not Interfere With Russian Internal Affairs.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The Allies' supreme council, on receiving the acceptance of the Russian bolshevik government of the invitation to attend the conference on the Princes' Islands, immediately made arrangements to send a joint committee of two representatives from each of the five great powers to meet the representatives of the soviet government.

London, Feb. 7.—The Bolshevik foreign minister of Russia, Mr. Tchitcherine, announces in a wireless dispatch picked up here that the soviet government is willing to participate in the Princes' Island conference. The message was sent from Moscow.

The dispatch begins by referring to "complaints from the Entente press concerning international revolutionary propaganda," and declares that the soviet government is ready, "if there be occasion, to enter into a general agreement with the Entente powers on their undertaking not to interfere with the Russian internal affairs."

It then announces that the government is disposed to confer on the basis indicated in the note for the conference at Princes' Islands or elsewhere "with all the Entente powers or some of them separately, or even with some of the Russian political groups at the request of the Entente powers."

In conclusion, the Entente powers are asked to inform the soviet government where its representatives are to go, also the date and route to be taken.

Won't Predict Action.

Paris, Feb. 7.—When Professor Boris A. Bakhtmetiev, a member of the council formed by antibolshevik factions here, was advised of M. T. Tchitcherine's acceptance of the invitation to the Princes' Island conference, he declared he would be unable to say what the Russian committee in Paris would do. He indicated that a copy of the official message must be received and discussed before any announcement would be made.

Bakhtmetiev said that the dispatch from Tchitcherine was a surprise. Called "Ignoble Comedy."

"It is an ignoble comedy," said Russian leaders here when they were shown dispatches stating that the bolsheviks were ready to go to the Prinkipos conference.

They expressed the opinion that the bolshevik leaders would represent to their followers that the Allies' invitation was recognition of them and would spread the report that the Allies, fearing them, had asked for peace, thus hoping to strengthen their position.

All Things come to him Who Waits

That was a popular proverb even in the days of Lincoln, but, the young man who was destined to become the President of the United States, found that things would come all the faster if they were met half way. Thrift is half the battle of Success. To have a bank-book at your back, is a better and surer method of "getting there" than waiting for a stroke of luck to come your way.

Go out and meet Success by banking as much of your wages as you possibly can.

Don't delay. Start today.

MUSIC AT CHAMBER

Typewriters Click to Accompaniment of Classical Music, New Note of Gladness

This morning typewriters clicked in harmony to the swelling tones, to the bewitching patter and then sensuous, luxuriant shades of tone colors comprising the Mignon opera.

Then came a soulful romance by Grunfeld. Busy office men in the Iron Exchange building listened intently.

Schubert's Serenade, always admired, delighted the auditors and some in the hallways beyond wondered who the artist was favoring the Iron Exchange building in the early morning hours. The touch, the tone, the music evoked from the keys was something wonderful.

Then came "Annie Laurie" and it struck a responsive chord in the breast of F. T. Lincoln, the secretary. The bonnie banks and braes, that Scotch hymn, just poured forth like a brook in the moors.

Visitors crowded in and found no artist at the piano. It was a Seeburg "X-pression" reproducing piano, operated by electricity, which had been installed in the Chamber by Wm. Graham. Auditors agreed with Mr. Graham that it gave forth the most human-like touch-tones ever evoked from a player-piano.

The piano will play a part in many social gatherings at the Chamber and its installation has been generally approved.

SOLDIERS CLUB

HALF OF FRENCH ARMY LOST

1,500,000 killed in battle and an equal number seriously wounded is the enormous sacrifice of France in the world war. This constituted about half of the men she put into the field—a larger ratio of her 35,000,000 population than any other nation gave. America owes France a large debt of gratitude for this heroic outpouring of her life's blood that liberty might live, and also to the peasants of France who discovered a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, prevented many surgical operations and saved thousands of lives. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

Thompson gave a two-minute go on boxing as it ought to be carried on for clean sport.

Alderman Ole Anderson's son Ed, also made a showing in the younger class.

"No father or mother need be ashamed to send their boy to the club," said Sergeant Hanson, as there nothing but training of an athletic nature carried on.

Saturday afternoon will be set aside for boys, as room is becoming limited. Mr. Rash was an interested spectator at the club.

Sergeant Hanson gave an exhibition of the "Kelly" drill with Seaman Jackson and Private Thompson as the subjects. It created an amusing affair, all spectators being deeply interested in the "Kelly" says, "Kelly didn't say."

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten soaks in the stomach much like garbage sores in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Epsom Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effecting and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Epsom Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

WOMAN'S REALM

CONSERVATION RECIPES GIVEN

Dave Schrader's Method of Making Sausage Meat, Mixing Rabbits and Rich Pork

A. G. TROMMOLD'S SPUDS

Beats any War Time Measure by Using the Whole Potato—Other Recipes to Follow

Not all the recipes, good ones too, for conservation emanate from the women. Brainerd boasts of its men who know a thing or two in the cooking line. Dave Schrader, popular insurance man, has a brand of sausage meat he makes on his farm which is a winner. Mr. Schrader raises his own pork on his farm near Hubert. Take some Chester White pig fattened on corn, boil it a while and cut in strips. Add to this some boiled rabbit, cut in sections and run the whole thru a sausage grinder and you have a mixture to delight the most epicurean palate. The lean meat of the rabbit and the rich pork harmonize and will suit the most fastidious taste.

A. G. Trommold, county register of deeds, has a way of frying potatoes that beats any war time measure proposed. During the recent unpleasantness one was advised to peel potatoes closely, but nobody thought of using the whole spud. Mr. Trommold selects good potatoes, washes and scrubs them thoroughly and then has them sliced with their jackets on. Accompanying a sirloin steak, fried onions, the potatoes make a rare dish. In the same way potatoes, thoroughly cleaned and scrubbed down and baked after such a bath, have a jacket which tastes well. This potato recipe is one which many hunters use and every small boy engaged in a potato baking tournament will remember. Potatoes baked in coals—well, there is nothing to equal it.

Brainerd men will be heard from in the future and hunters' methods of cooking game and fishermen's methods of cooking fish in paper and clay, baking beans, serving lute-fish, etc., will be given. The ladies have no monopoly on the art of cooking or on original recipes, not by a long shot.

"TOO FAT TO FIGHT"

Rex Beach's Drama of Human Emotions at the Best. Wealth of Comedy in the Picture

At the Best tonight, "Too Fat to Fight." Rex Beach's drama of human emotions "Too Fat to Fight," has been officially indorsed and given the highest possible recommendation by the Young Men's Christian Association. A committee of Y. M. C. A. officials, headed by William Sloane, chairman of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A., attended a private showing of the picture and promptly attached their O. K. to the new and virile Rex Beach story which depicts the wonderful work of the Y. M. C. A., Y. M. H. A., Y. W. C. A., K. of C. and Salvation Army in the interests of humanity.

The executive committee which attended the private screening consisted of the following nationally known men:

William Sloane, William H. Crawford, E. A. Goewey, James R. Crowell, Walter A. Sinclair and Albert E. Elliott. In addition to these officials more than fifty attaches of the National Y. M. C. A. Headquarters were brought in for personal opinions which tested the production from all angles.

The wealth of comedy which abounds throughout the six intensely interesting parts drew enthusiastic applause from the Y. M. C. A. audience. The gripping dramatic episodes were also warmly received and held the spectators in unmitigated suspense.

The Y. M. C. A. board not only indorsed and praised the picture from a technical angle, but, in addition, the strength of the story and the rapidity of the action of the play were subjects for commendation.

At the Best Saturday

John Barrymore had an amusing, as well as exciting, experience while taking scenes in "On the Quiet," which will be shown here tomorrow. When the yacht on which the star was sailing came within the zone in which the German U-boats were reported to be operating, off Jersey coast, things happened.

In "On the Quiet" there is an exciting chase when Barrymore escapes from the brother of the girl he loves, who is trying to stop the young people from marrying, and these scenes were photographed off the Jersey coast. While the action was going on, and the irate brother of the picture was following the speedy yacht of the elopers with another swift craft, Barrymore was perturbed by a flock of aeroplanes and hydroplanes which circled about, as well as a fleet of other fast crafts, and he said, disgustedly to Chet Withey, the director: "A fellow can't even make pictures out on the ocean without being bothered by rubbernecks."

A few moments later one of the hydroplanes came close to the Barrymore yacht and curiously delivered the message: "Make for shore. German submarines are operating here."

The yacht made for shore speedily.

Big Apiary

An interesting picture of a large apiary on a precipitous mountain side was shown in Popular Mechanics Magazine. The slope has been cut into terraces twelve to fifteen feet high on which more than 300 swarms of bees are housed, each hive being placed on a concrete foundation. The land put to this profitable use would be worth little for any other purpose. The hives, being high up, are freed by the summer breezes and are warmed by the sun in winter.

DISEASE AND COAL

Scientific Discoveries Establish a Connection.

World Declared to Have Been Free From Physical Ills Before the Beds That Supply Fuel Were Laid Down.

One of the most curious of discussions has been started by Prof. Roy L. Moodie, a scientist of high reputation, who has made a special study of the beginning of disease. Once upon a time, he says, there was no such thing as disease in either animals or plants. But it was a very long while ago. His inquiries led him to the conclusion that diseases began in the coal-forming period, when the vast deposits of our fossil fuel were laid down in peaty bogs from the luxuriant vegetation of regions then tropical—in Pennsylvania, along the southern Alleghenies and elsewhere.

In those very ancient times, ever so many millions of years ago, the earth was covered with water far more extensively than at present, and on the bottom grew fields of "sea lilies"—just as they do today in marine shallows. They are oddly imitative of plants, though really animals, and fossil remains of them found in coal show enlargements of the stems plainly due to attack by parasite worms. During the coal period there seems to have been an extensive development of those forms of microscopic vegetation that we call fungi and bacteria. Nearly all plant diseases are due to attack by parasitic fungi. Most diseases of men and animals are attributable to bacteria of one species or another that have acquired the habit of parasitism. Minute bacteria and fungi—traces of their colonies, that is to say—have been found in the fossil droppings of extinct species of fishes, embalmed, as one might say, in our coal deposits. In plant structures of corresponding antiquity are discovered natural "cultures" of bacteria, silicified.

The fossil teeth of long-extinct species of fishes have been found affected by "dental caries"—irregular decayed spots. Are we to suppose that those finny creatures of early days suffered from toothache? Twenty or thirty millions of years ago arrived the age of reptiles, which developed the giant lizards, that were the largest animals ever known in the world, if some modern whales be excepted. Some of their bones (preserved in the rocks) show deformities obviously due to disease. Certain of these deformities suggest chronic inflammation of the joints; others, tuberculosis. After the age of reptiles came the early mammals. They and their descendants (including ourselves) have certainly had a due allowance of disease ever since. But (if Professor Moodie's dictum is to be accepted) there was no such thing as disease in the world up to the time when the coal beds were laid down.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Rebuilding Saloniki.

An ambitious plan for rebuilding Saloniki was outlined recently by Mr. Thomas H. Mawson at King's college, London. Saloniki, he said, had been devastated by a great fire, and it had been decided to rebuild it on such a scale as to make it one of the most important cities in the East. M. Venizelos had determined to make it a more beautiful city. The city was fortunately situated in regard to parks, for it had at its disposal tracts of land which would be made into some of the finest parks in the world without a penny of purchase money being paid over.

$750,000,000 for Railroads.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Director General Hines, appearing before the House Appropriations committee, urged that Congress appropriate $750,000,000 additional for the revolving fund, for which $500,000,000 originally was authorized by Congress. He said the appropriation should be made regardless of whether government control of the roads was relinquished within a few months, as the money was necessary for improvements which the roads would be unable to finance.

"Y" WORKER WHO IS DOING THINGS

Louis E. Hathaway, Brainerd Man, Gains Good Will of the Soldiers in France

CHRISTMAS SURPRISES GIVEN

Christmas Supplies Not Coming on Time, Paris Market Combed for Goodies for Soldiers

Louis E. Hathaway, Brainerd "Y" man in service in France, according to his letter has gained the goodwill of the soldiers and shows he has the right spirit and knows what to do when previously arranged programs break down. His letter follows and is well worth reading, in view of the criticism being levelled at the Y. M. C. A. for not coming up to the mark:

Lifol le Grand, France,
 January 3, 1919.

Dear Ones—

This is the first chance I have had for some days past to drop you a line. The holidays were sure a busy time, but now for a time at least, the stress has let down a bit.

I suppose the first thing you will want to know is how we spent Christmas. I will have to quote one of the boys (one you would at least expect an expression of such a kind from, and the captain says it is enclosed in every letter home) "If anyone had told me I would have a real good time Christmas, in France, I'd have said it was impossible, but we did have a fine time." When I heard that coming from this particular boy I felt repaid for all the effort it cost.

Several days before Christmas I learned that it was doubtful if the "Y" boxes and supplies would arrive in time for Christmas, so I got my traveling orders and hiked away to Paris and after several strenuous days, located enough boxes, chocolate and cigars, etc., to supply my outfit. Also a lot of pretty paper decorations and flags, a Santa Claus outfit and yards of tinsel and Xmas tree decorations. The day before Xmas I went with the boys across the fields to the mountains where we got greens, beautiful ivy, mistletoe and a beautiful Christmas tree. That night after every one was in bed, we decorated the mess hall and the Xmas tree. It sure was pretty. We did not let the men in for breakfast, but that is getting ahead of my story. We worked until 11:30, then the whole crowd walked about two miles to the little town below us and attended mass at midnight, in the beautiful old church. It was a beautiful service. The choir was composed of Red Cross nurses. In the front of the church was built a stable and a manger, with the wax figures of the Holy family, in tableaux of the birth of Jesus.

Well after breakfast we lighted all the Japanese lanterns and the Christmas tree, dressed up Santa Claus, the bugler blew assembly and the fun began. The men marched in and they were sure surprised at seeing the decorations and Santa. Captain Brazer and Lieut. Silver assisted in giving out the gifts. We gave each man three big bars of chocolate, a can of tobacco, a plug of chewing, a cigar, three packs of cigarettes, a bag of lemon-drops, a bag of cookies, five packages of chewing gum and two packs of Lucky Strike cigarettes, and most of them received their home packages. Santa was full of pep and had a joke for each man and they were a tickled bunch of kids. It was such a surprise. After that was over we decorated the tables prettily. The officers all came over for dinner and had the center table. We had paper caps for nearly every one, and a horn or a whistle. The officers responded to toasts, the men sang, and the horns tooted. We threw confetti and serpentine, and had a wonderful time. After dinner we all went to the big warehouse, that we had made into a wonderful theatre. Had a big band for the orchestra, 20 vaudeville acts and several good boxing bouts. The show was repeated at night, closing a wonderful day.

New Year's day we had another big show and candy and smokes and gum—and thus endeth the holidays. The weather here, at present, is miserable. It snowed at Christmas enough to whiten the ground, but it rains almost continually and is damp and chilly. Most of our men are on convoy duty taking trains of food into Germany for our army.

It is nearly seven months since I came to France and I have not taken my leave of absence yet, but next week I am going on my furlough. Nice and Monte Carlo and to Italy and then when I come back I expect to go to Germany. Don't expect to get home until late summer, though I really am getting quite homesick and I have enough of France.

Wishing you all the very best New Year's wishes and all prosperity and happiness, I am as always,

LOUIS E. HATHAWAY.

"CARLETON OR BUST"

Brainerd and St. Cloud to Clash at the Local High School Auditorium

Tomorrow night the basketball team of the local high school will clash with the team from St. Cloud, at the high school auditorium at 8:15. The game will be hard and fast and both teams are equally confident of being the victor. Our boys have been working hard, they are in the best of condition and playing good basketball and they stand more than an even chance of winning.

They are weakened however by the loss of Captain Nelson, who is out of the game, having suffered a twisted knee in the Staples game. His loss to the team is severely felt, and the quint will be strengthened greatly when he returns. It is expected that he will be able to play again in a week or two, his knee doing as well as could be hoped for. His place will probably be filled by Warner, a good fast guard who made a good showing in the Little Falls game. Warner is the brother of Sergeant "Stick" Warner who was captain of the team of 1916.

The team has improved wonderfully since the Little Falls game and the fans may be sure that they will see a very different article of ball than when we were defeated by the down-river team. The boys are full of pep and they will do all in their power to win this game. The rooting has been organized, some good yells have been developed, and the students are going to do their share. A great deal of credit is due to the work of Beyer who has been working his hardest to whip the boys into shape. This game promises to be one of the hardest of the season and if we win, it will be a big step toward our goal—Carleton.

Following is the probable line-up: H. Cunningham, guard; J. Warner, guard; A. Reid, center; H. Bakila, forward; W. Higbe, forward. Subs, C. Ebner, forward; C. Shello, guard.

Why He Wanted Arm Straight.

A Canadian officer, wounded early in the war, was sent to one of the institutions to have his left arm made over. The elbow had been so badly shattered that surgery, wonderful as its skill and resources are, could not entirely reconstruct the joint. So the officer was given a choice of two things—either to have a weak, movable elbow, or a strong stiff one. Without hesitation the Canadian chose the stiff elbow, and he astonished the surgeons by asking that the arm be made perfectly straight.

They pointed out to him that the arm would be far more useful if the elbow was set at an angle. If set straight he wouldn't be able even to put his hand in the pocket of his trousers. But the Canadian had anticipated that argument by arranging with his tailor to have the pocket so low that by hunching his shoulder he could get his hand into it. The reason he wanted the arm made rigidly straight was to be able to use a hunting rifle and a billiard cue.

DELAY IN MOVING MAIL IS DENIED

General Pershing Says Letters to and From Soldiers Are Handled Promptly.

EXPLAINS DIFFICULTIES

Washington, Feb. 7.—The war department has received a cable message from General Pershing denying reports that mail to and from the American Expeditionary Forces had become congested at French rail heads.

The general said there was no delay or accumulation of mail for the United States and no accumulation of correctly addressed mail arriving in France for the soldiers.

Only 126 Sacks Returned. General Pershing said there was 1,210 sacks of incorrectly addressed mail at the Central army postoffice in France now being redirected, while only 126 sacks of dead letters had been shipped to the United States in January. The incorrectly addressed mail at the Central office, he said, could be placed in one American car.

General Pershing quoted from a report made to him by Colonel Howe, director of the Postal Express service, which said that "first class mail moves on scheduled passenger trains and reaches present rail heads of army of occupation in six days from time of arrival in France."

Regarding the outgoing mail, Colonel Howe said it required an average of fourteen and one-half days for mail dispatched from divisional rail heads to reach the Bordeaux terminal and an average of 2.20 days for mail dispatched from fixed postoffices on line of communications to reach that terminal. "The Bordeaux terminal," said Colonel Howe, "reports its floors cleared of mail after each shipment to the state. If there is any delay in mail from France other than these figures show it is on the water elsewhere."

GERMANY GROWS ARROGANT

Supreme War Council May Take Drastic Action.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The supreme war council will meet at Versailles to take measures to impose on Germany "the full will of the Allies," says the Matin, because of the unwillingness of Germany to carry out the armistice terms except under certain conditions.

There has been a change in the attitude of Germany, according to the newspaper, and it is being manifested by arrogance toward the Allies.

FIVE SHIPS LEAVE FRANCE

Chicago-Milwaukee Air Line.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Hydro-airplanes capable of carrying 40 passengers will be in operation between Chicago and Milwaukee beginning June 1, according to Capt. Benjamin B. Lipsner, until recently superintendent of the government air mail service, and now at the head of a syndicate to install air freight and passenger service between different points. "We will have a regular schedule between the cities," Captain Lipsner said, "the time in transit being 40 minutes and the cost $25 for the round trip."

Gabriel D'Annunzio.

Ma. Gabriel D'Annunzio, the leader of the Italian airmen, is a most extraordinary personality. Famous before the war as a poet and dramatist, as the creator of a new Italian literature, he has affected the language of his country more profoundly than anyone since Dante; a notable figure in society, much discussed for his luxurious tastes, he stepped into the forefront of the battle as a soldier when over fifty years old. Since then he added exploit to exploit, stealing into enemy ports in small craft at night to torpedo battleships, carrying out the longest and most dangerous air raids. When the armistice was signed he commanded a squadron of picked young airmen.

Big Estate in Britain.

"Country Life" (London, England) advertises in a recent issue an auction sale of part of a British landed estate whose size might cause even our biggest ranch-owners to lift their eyebrows. This consists of "the northern portion of the Sutherland estates," extending to an area of 299,142 acres! This vast tract of hundreds of square miles, however, is only a small part of the holdings of the duke of Sutherland, which amount to "about 1,358,000 acres." The tract to be sold, it is announced, "affords the opportunity to acquire the whole length of the famous salmon rivers, the Navar and Halladale."

FOURTEEN MEN ARE INDICTED

J. F. Harper, 416 Navarre St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "I consider Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely the best cough remedy on the market. I know whereof I speak, having tried it my own family. Your remedy acts quickly and relief is permanent." Good for colds, coughs, croup. Contains no opiates. H. P. Dunn, druggist. mwf

Balloon Catches Fire.

Are You Losing Your Grip on Health?

Physician's Prescription to Increase The Health and Strength of Anemic, Run-down Men and Women

As a result of the tremendous strain which the war has put upon so many people, the nerve cells have become devitalized, the whole system weakened and thousands of men and women are today losing their grip on health simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron. It is through iron in the red coloring matter of the blood that life sustaining oxygen enters the body and enables the blood to change food into living tissue muscle and brain. If people would only keep their blood filled with strength-giving iron by taking Nuxated Iron when they feel weak and run-down they might readily build up their red blood corpuscles and quickly become stronger and healthier in every way. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron from three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength of weak, nervous, "run-down" men and women in two weeks' time in many instances. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. Nuxated Iron is on sale at all good druggists.

HARJU GAINS $4,750 VERDICT

Jury Returned Sealed Verdict, Opened this Morning in Case of Harju vs. Allen

CRIMINAL CALENDAR FOLLOWS

In district court before Judge W. S. McClenahan, the jury returned a sealed verdict in the case of Arvid Harju vs. Dr. F. A. Allen of Crosby, which was read in court awarding a verdict of $4,750 for the plaintiff. The latter claimed damages for alleged improper treatment of a fractured leg.

The criminal call was then taken up, the first case being against Geo. Anderson, formerly of Brainerd, charged with manslaughter. Some time will be taken in gaining the jury. Out of twenty-four men examined, ten were accepted. The first venire was thus quickly exhausted and the court ordered a second venire of seven men returnable Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

The ten jurors accepted are:

Gust Malmstrom, shop employe, Brainerd.

George W. Bahma, paper mill employe, Brainerd.

Herman Fleischer, farmer, Daggett Brook.

George Klein, farmer, Pequot.

Christ Anderson, shopman, Brainerd.

Robert Maghan, farmer, Bay Lake.

P. M. Zakariassen, farmer and dairyman, outskirts Brainerd.

Ed Brandt, farmer near Deerwood.

R. J. Hartley, insurance and real estate, Brainerd.

Ed Elmore, farmer, Bay Lake.

During the examination of Gus Burtrum of Crosby Beach, who had been drawn for the jury by special venire, and was not accepted, he said he had heard nothing about the case except that on Thursday evening between 7 and 7:30 o'clock, two women approached him near the Best theatre and one of them said, "The man is innocent."

Judge McClenahan then addressed the jury and cautioned them from holding any conversation with any one in regard to the case or of permitting any one to speak to them about the case.

Court then adjourned to Saturday morning.

BOOST—DON'T KNOCK

Editor, Brainerd Dispatch:

In answer to the article in your newspaper in your issue of the 6th inst. concerning the South Side Skating rink, signed by "A Skater," the committee has the following to say:

We have collected $180.05 by public subscription and a benefit dance. Of this we have spent $135.55 for cost of warming house, brooms, shovels and other expenses of the rink, and we have $44.50 on hand. Our work is entirely gratuitous and none of us have received, or will receive, or accept any pay for our work. This undertaking has been a lot of work to us, for sometimes we have had to work until after midnight to flood the rink. We do not object to the work, however, provided it is appreciated. We are not lacking in enthusiasm, nor do we intend to quit.

However, the weather for three weeks in January was too mild for skating, and the rink could not be kept in shape. Last Monday it became colder, and we cleared about one half the rink of snow so as to accommodate quite a number of skaters. If the person who signed himself "A Skater," and others interested, will come to the rink tonight, you will find us working hard to clear it of all snow. We will endeavor to place it in good shape for Saturday and Sunday. You say, "We skaters are very willing to help." We therefore invite you to the rink tonight and other times to help us and thus show your interest in the project. We ask the co-operation of all the skaters interested in the rink. It is hard for the committee to do it all. We should have help, and further, we are always glad to have skaters offer reasonable suggestions and boost for the rink, for it is a public enterprise.

No smoking is allowed in the warming house but, as the committee cannot always be around to enforce the rules, some of the younger boys may have smoked when we were not there. We object to it and shall endeavor to prevent it if possible, but cannot be held responsible if boys gather there in the daytime and smoke, for the committee cannot be around. We have not enough money to hire an overseer.

Therefore, we would say to the "Skater," and all others interested,

SOLDIER MINISTER TO PREACH IN CITY

Rev. Fred Errington, Formerly Chaplain at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Sunday at

1ST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Glad to Have Soldiers Attend Services, Met Many Brainerd Men in Camp and Field

Rev. Fred Errington, formerly chaplain at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, will preach Sunday morning at the First Congregational church, and will be glad to meet there soldiers of the city, for he met many Brainerd men in camp and field.

Rev. Errington was educated in Hartley College, Manchester, England, and the Theological Seminary in Chicago, graduating with the class of 1913. He has been in the United States ten years. His first pastorate of three years was at Long Rapids, Michigan. There he organized a church and built a fine rural church in which he was ordained.

From Long Rapids he went to the Chicago Theological Seminary and completed the course. Then he served 18 months at the Summerdale Congregational church in Chicago, and to be one of the hardest fields in that city, and it was accepted for the experience it would afford a young minister.

October, 1914, to October, 1918, he was at Grand Lodge, Michigan, and assigned to enter Fort Harrison. During his four years' pastorate 100 members were added, the property was improved and upon his return he was asked to remain at Grand Lodge with an increase in salary.

Rev. Errington comes to Brainerd to look over the local field, and is anxious to meet congregation and friends of the church.

Y. M. C. A. TO BUILD; ELKS PLAN A HOME

Government Request Urging Building Operations be Carried on Will be Followed

"Y" TO HAVE BIG ADDITION

Elks Building Committee to be Named Soon and Decisive Steps Taken Shortly After

A. J. Hayes, Judge Walter F. Wieland and B. L. Lagerquist were named directors at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday evening.

The building committee confers with the full board of directors next week at which time the building project of the "Y" greatly enlarging the structure, will be taken up and it is expected to be adopted.

In line with the government request to start building this season and thus give more employment to returned men from government service, the Elks of Brainerd are taking up the project of an Elks home in the city in which it is proposed to have business firms on the main floor and a hall, lockers, buffet, lounging room, etc., in the Elks section of the building.

It is expected to name a building committee soon. The building when completed will house a lodge which now has over 300 members and is growing constantly.

BRAINERD'S OLDEST STORIES OF TODAY

Down at Little Falls they can tell cold weather by the clock in the court house tower. Every time it hits 32 below like last January or 21 below like on Feb. 4, the clock freezes up and the hands go on strike.

The Little Falls Transcript published a half-column editorial on the "Vanished Maid Servant" problem Feb. 5, and two columns to the right in the same paper had a boxed story telling about four Little Falls ladies advertising in the Transcript for maids and getting help in 24 hours.

It is reported that telephone equipment has been perfected to carry five telephone conversations over the same circuit at the same time. That's nothing new. Any good rural line is doing that same thing.

FAMOUS EXPOSITION BUILDING IN MILL CITY

To House the Northwestern Automobile and Industrial Exposition in Minneapolis

FOR THE WEEK OF FEB. 15 TO 22

Visitor will See More Separate Shows Than There are Rings in the Biggest Circus

Standing on the East bank of the Mississippi across the river from the Great Northern station towering above the sky-line of Minneapolis is the famous Exposition Building where the Northwestern Automobile and Industrial Exposition will be held the week of Feb. 15-22.

It adjoins the site of the largest flour mill in the world. The Godfrey house the first home in Minneapolis, stands across the street and within a short distance is the State University. The Exposition Building stands midway between the Steel Arch bridge and the beautiful Third Avenue bridge, opened last summer at a cost of $2,000,000. All street cars that cross to the East Side pass within a block of the main entrance, and with one-minute service promised, there is certain to be no congestion.

The Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Burlington, Great Western, Omaha and Northwestern railroad trains run into the Great Northern station, less than three-minute street car ride from the big showhouse. The Milwaukee, Rock Island and Soo trains run into the Milwaukee station at the west end of the Third Avenue bridge, a ten-minute walk.

The Exposition building was erected in 90 days and has stood for more than 30 years as an eloquent testimonial to the enterprise and spirit of the men who helped make the great northwest what it is. This month it will be re-dedicated to the cause of a re-united and prosperous northwest after the horror of war.

The building stands on hallowed ground, in the opinion of the older generation, for it was the site of the old Winslow House. This famous hostelry was the social and business center of old St. Anthony town and many of the nation's famous people were entertained there 50 years ago. Each summer it was the center of a colony of southerners and later on became an institution of learning.

Those who visit the great exposition will see more separate shows than there are rings in the biggest circus. In addition to the annual auto show, there will be the world's largest tractor show, a truck show and an accessory show. This does not take into consideration the third floor, where the industrial exhibits will be housed. Here also will be a variety of distinct shows. The office equipment show, the building material show, the fashion show, the food show, and the electrical show are some of the features promised.

By way of introduction to the main event, the tractor men have made arrangements for a monster tractor parade that will wind through the streets of Minneapolis at noon on Feb. 10. There will be in line more than 100 machines, comprising all the models that ever came from factory. At the head of the pageant will be a "whippet" tank and at the tail of the procession will be another of the little engines of war that figured so prominently in the defeat of Germany. After the parade they will be installed in the Exposition building where seasoned tank officers will demonstrate their workings during the show.

Decorations surpassing in beauty and variety of design anything ever displayed in the northwest are being put in place by a crew of men expert in their line. With 3,000 extra lights shining through the purple and gold trappings, the contractor promises an interior that might have come out of an Arabian Nights story.

Railroads are preparing for the greatest traffic in years and Twin City hotel men say they will be able to accommodate all visitors.

REGULAR SCHOOL SINCE DEC. 30TH

Gradually Increasing Enrollment and Attendance, Until the City Schools Again Normal

HALF-DAY ON SATURDAYS

Epidemic Caused Loss of Seven Weeks School Work—Some Scholars Absent 11 Weeks

Supt. W. C. Cobb of the city schools has given the Dispatch the following review in school work:

No general report of the city schools has been published since the September report published early in October. Until the present month, no continuous session of the public schools for a period of one month has been held, which accounts for the absence of the periodical report. Since December 30th, the schools have been in regular session with a gradually increasing enrollment and daily attendance, until at the present time, the attendance in all of the buildings is normal and the work is gradually approaching that of a normal school year.

Since January 1st, the schools have been in session for one half day on Saturday, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of making up a part of the work lost on account of the epidemic. A large majority of the parents in Brainerd having children in the schools have accepted the plan of the Saturday morning session in good spirit, approaching fully the need for making up work, if the pupils are to attain the expected and allotted year's work.

The State Department of Education notified every school in the state that it expected that school work lost through the closing of schools would be made up as far as possible and the schools throughout the state, generally, have provided means in compliance with this request. Many of the schools used a part of the Christmas vacation and most of the schools of the state will hold regular sessions during the whole or a part of the customary holidays. When it is remembered that all the school children in Brainerd were out of school for seven consecutive weeks and that more than one-half of all the pupils in the Brainerd schools were not inside of a school room for eleven consecutive weeks and a considerable number of pupils for even a longer period than eleven weeks, it may be realized that there is a very special need for special effort on the part of all, in order to complete a reasonably satisfactory school year.

The Saturday morning sessions will be discontinued after Saturday, March 1st, and it is the present plan to hold no school session on Saturday, Feb. 22, or Washington's birthday. The schools will be in regular session, however, during a part of Feb. 12, and patriotic exercises will be held in all school buildings in the afternoon, in celebration of both Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays at that time.

The regular mid-year examinations which should have been held about Jan. 15th, have been postponed one month and begin next Wednesday. Principals and teachers in conference with the superintendent have estimated that the grades from the fourth to the eighth are about one month behind regular schedule. The lower grades are somewhat farther behind than the intermediate and grammar grades, and it will probably be desirable to withhold promotions in the first three grades until a few weeks later in order to more correctly determine the status of different classes.

The high school and eight grades suffered the least of all the schools, and the high school teachers estimate that most of their classes are now about where they should be at mid-year. If no additional setbacks occur between now and June 1st, it is hoped and expected that by teaching during a part of the usual Easter vacation and revising the outline of school work so as to omit some of the less essential topics, the schools will complete a reasonably satisfactory year and that a majority of the pupils will receive their credits as usual. It is inevitable, however, that pupils, backward in their work under normal conditions, and who lost the maximum rather than the minimum amount of time because of the epidemic, will fail to receive full credit for the present year.

On February 9th, or soon thereafter, a general health tournament will be started among the grade children of the schools. This movement is part of the national plan for emphasizing the importance of health conservation among all the people, and, in Minnesota the health crusade is being conducted under the auspices of the Minnesota Public Health Association with the endorsement and backing of the State Department of Education and the Junior Red Cross. Parents are asked to co-operate with the teachers and children in this health crusade and to assist the children in securing the reward buttons and pins in recognition of the faithful performance of a series of health regulation.

During the present month, a night school for foreigners has been started at the Harrison school, meeting three evenings a week, with an enrollment up to date of 25 adult students. This evening school is for the purpose of assisting adult foreigners to speak, read and write the English language as a preparation for naturalization, and is a part of the plan of the general government in the work of Americanization of its foreign population. The school is free and open to all foreigners.

To the patriotic exercises to be held in each of the school buildings in celebration of Lincoln and Washington's Birthdays next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, the public is cordially invited.

A special invitation is extended to G. A. R. Post, Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies' Circle, and all returned soldier boys who may be in Brainerd to attend the exercises at the high school building where patriotic music will be rendered by the school and an address delivered by Rev. E. A. Cooke of Brainerd.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

When soldier mail is addressed, giving the unit to which the soldier belongs, the domestic rate of postage, three cents per ounce, applies.

Resolutions filed in the Massachusetts legislature call upon the United States congress to establish a uniform eight-hour workday throughout the nation. The resolutions are in part as follows:

"Whereas the constantly increasing productivity of machinery created by human labor and resulting from the inventive genius of mankind enables the working class to produce a given amount of wealth in an ever-decreasing length of time; and

"Whereas the return of the military and naval forces of the United States from the battlefields of Europe and their return to industry under former conditions would result in an intense competition for jobs between them and the formerly untrained workers, especially women and minors, whom the worldwide war has called into industrial activity, which would cause injustice both to the returned men and to those now holding their former jobs; therefore be it

"Resolved, that it is the opinion of the general court of Massachusetts that public interest will be better served, labor more fully employed and prosperity more generally by the reduction of the hours of labor to not exceeding eight per day throughout the nation, except in cases of emergency; and it respectfully petitions the congress of the United States to take necessary steps to provide such uniform workday."

SHORT HOURS ON FARMS ADVOCATED BY BANKER

Reduction of working hours on the farm is regarded as one of the problems of reconstruction by W. H. Tinkham, field agent of the Federal Farm Loan bank of Springfield, Mass. The war transferred so much farm labor to the munition factories and the army and navy that it is not to be expected that this labor will be willing to return to the old long-hour conditions, in the opinion of Mr. Tinkham.

Have Advanced Program.

Federal ownership, operation, or regulation of public and semipublic utilities was recommended in the report of the committee on reconstruction of the American Federation of Labor, made public after its approval by the federation's executive council. Government ownership of all wharves and docks, federal legislation to prevent child labor, and equality in pay for men and women workers also were urged.

The committee opposed the formation of a labor political party, on the ground that "the disastrous experience of organized labor in America with political parties of its own amply justified the American Federation of Labor's nonpartisan political policy."

American Labor Party.

The newly formed American Labor party of New York was formally organized by delegates said to represent 882 organizations and 500,000 trade unionists.

The platform adopted favors President Wilson's 14 points, self-determination for Ireland, a 44-hour week, equal pay for women, guarantee of a wage to every adult worker based on the average cost of supporting a family of five persons, provision for soldiers, sailors, munition workers and others similarly affected by the end of the war and government insurance for all citizens. The new party went on record as opposing prohibition.

British Trade Union Funds.

For the third year in succession the British chief registrar of friendly societies reports a net reduction in the number of trade unions. At the close of 1916 there were 674, as compared with 677 in 1915 and 690 in 1914, with a membership of 3,703,001, which represented an increase during the year of considerably over 225,000. The chief registrar comments on the tendency to organize the workers into large homogeneous bodies rather than to have a large number of smaller unions. On the other hand the average size of the employers' unions has decreased during the last five years.

Gary Predicts Great Prosperity.

An era of great prosperity for America during the next five years was predicted by E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation board of directors. "There will be readjustments in prices and wages, too, eventually," Mr. Gary said, "but the readjustments in wages will come slowly and in such a way that labor will recognize their justice. If employers are fair to labor I have no doubt labor will reciprocate."

WAR TAX BILL READY

Measure Submitted to Congress for Final Action.

Raises Six Billions in 1919, War Excess Profits and Incomes Bearing Bulk of Burden.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The conference agreement on the long delayed war revenue bill has been submitted to congress. The American people are presented with their prospective federal tax budget for 1919 and ensuing years—something over $6,000,000,000 this year and $4,000,000,000 the year after, subject to the revision of future rates expected to be undertaken by the next congress.

The conference report, presented to the house by majority leader, Claude Kitchin, is now regarded as assured of adoption by both house and senate and of approval by the president. It thus provides the future American tax yield, which now is about $4,370,000,000 besides this year's tax levy of about $6,000,000,000; further treasury needs to be raised by bonds and other means, are estimated by the treasury at about $12,000,000,000.

Senate View Generally Prevails.

Except for slightly increased war excess profits rates for 1919 and corporations income tax rates for 1920, virtually all the rates as revised in the bill passed by the senate are approved by the conferees and remain in the final conference draft. Like the original house bill and the senate's revision, the bulk of the taxes are levied on war excess profits of corporations and on incomes, individual and corporation. Rates of the senate on transportation, beverages, cigars and tobacco, amusement admissions, club dues, luxuries, and semiluxuries, stamp and special taxes, all substantially were adopted by the conferees, while the house rates on estates and insurance were reinstated.

BILL TAXES ALL WHO CAN PAY

Revenue Measure Hits Every Man With More Than Living Salary.

The married man drawing $3,000 a year will pay a $60 income tax unless he has children, and the single man with the same income will have to donate $120 to his Uncle Sam.

At $4,000 the rate jumps to 12 per cent, and the surtaxes begin to pile on at $5,000 until they reach 65 per cent on incomes over $1,000,000.

American Starves to Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—W. D. Childs, for many years chief representative of the Western Union Telegraph company in Russia, is dead of starvation in Petrograd, according to a message received here by Dr. George A. Simons, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church in Russia and Finland and pastor of the American church in Petrograd. The news came in a cable message from Miss Anna Eklund, deaconess of the American church in Petrograd.

SHALL WAGES OR PRICES BE FIRST?

HIGH COST OF LIVING PROBLEM IS WHERE TO BEGIN MAKING THE REDUCTIONS.

LABOR WON'T ACCEPT A CUT

Cessation of Employment Complicating the Matter—Some of Uncle Sam's Unused Preparations for Longer War—Just Beginning to Fight.

BY ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—A great problem in reaching reductions in the high cost of living is to find out where these reductions shall begin; whether the prices of food and other necessities shall be reduced first, or whether there shall first be a cut in wages. Labor interests everywhere are strenuously objecting to making the first sacrifice, either in the reduction of wages or in laying off men. According to telegrams which have been coming to Washington from various parts of the country, it appears that there has been a great cessation of employment and many thousands of men have been laid off in various cities and towns in many kinds of industry. It is not expected that laying off men and stopping production will soon reduce the cost of living, although in time it will tend in that direction.

Discussion of the bill appropriating $100,000,000 for the starving people of Europe developed the possibility of starvation and bread lines in this country as a result of stopping production and the consequent lack of employment for hundreds of thousands of workers. An intimation was made that it was quite possible that men in this country would object seriously to the shipment of foodstuffs abroad if their wives and children were without food.

The United States would have made a much more wonderful showing in the war if it had lasted six or eight months longer. It is not generally known that there was enough gas manufactured in the United States and now held for future disposition to have spread all over Germany. That gas was to have been shipped during the winter, to be used in the spring campaign. And then we were getting ready to go much farther in the way of war on the sea. It is altogether probable that in spite of mines and other obstructions the German coast would have been attacked. The United States had 200,000 sailors who never went to sea, but were in training, while there were contracts out for thousands of naval craft that could have been used not only against submarines, but against the German coast. In the language of one of our heroes of long ago, we were "just beginning to fight."

Vice President Marshall, complying with a standing order of the senate, this year designated Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey to read Washington's farewell address on the 22d of February. The late Senator Hoar of Massachusetts started this custom more than 30 years ago and it has been followed ever since. Sometimes one senator and sometimes another has been designated. Frelinghuysen is such a good natured individual that quite a number of his friends took advantage of the designation and joked him about it, giving him advice as to how he should read the address, and what kind of gestures he should make, and suggesting that he might take a few elocutionary lessons if he were not quite sure of himself.

"I am going to tell Marshall," said Frelinghuysen, "that while it is no doubt a great honor he has tendered me, I am inclined to believe that he sent me a loving cup filled with mud."

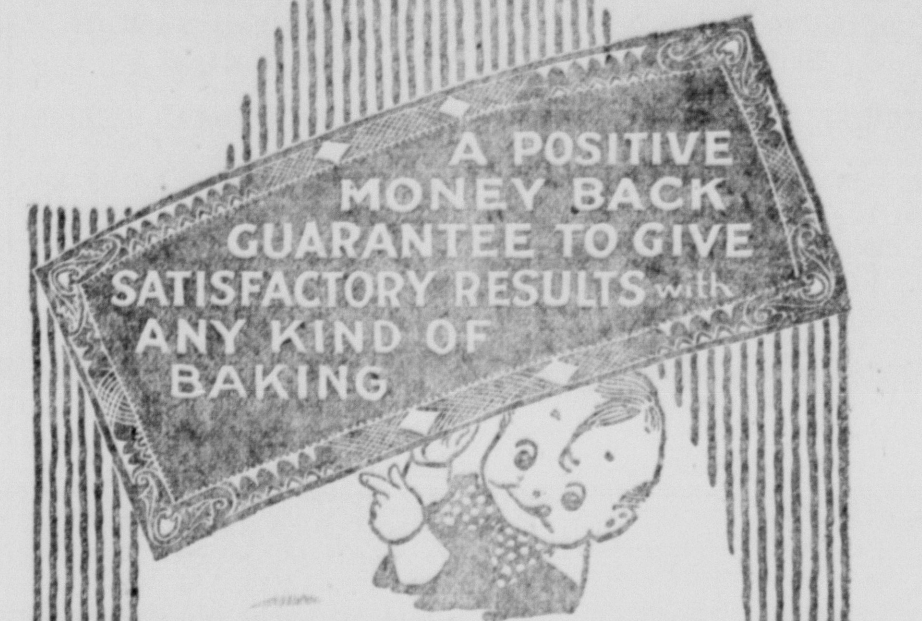

Speaker Clark is one very prominent man who does not believe that an extra session of congress is necessary. "I think we are going to get through," remarked Champ, when the subject was mentioned. No doubt the speaker would like to avoid an extra session. Congress has been in almost continuous session during the time he has been speaker.

Congressman Miller of Minnesota told the house that during the last year and a half he has given more time to studying the Russian situation than any other question. Miller blamed the tangle in Russia on the quality of diplomacy dispensed by the ambassadors of the nations opposed to Germany, including this country. "In my opinion," he declared, "there do not exist in the history of diplomacy in this century two periods and two places where greater blunders, with more far-reaching consequences, occurred than in Greece and Russia, and Russia is the worse of the two."

Everyone seems to have a different idea of just what did most to bring about the Russian mix-up.

The proposal to pay the widow of Theodore Roosevelt a pension of $5,000 a year brought out the fact that it has been the custom of congress to not pension widows of presidents; not in cases, but six have been so recognized. They were the widows of Presidents Polk, Tyler, Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, all of whom received $5,000. Other presidential widows were voted lump sums, in several cases $25,000.

FOUR BIG BROTHERHOODS OFFER R. R. PLAN

RAIL STRIKE IN LONDON SETTLED

PLAN DRASTIC ACTION

Trades Union Leaders Are Contemplating Proceedings to Deal With Revolutionary Move Leading to Unauthorized Walkouts.

London, Feb. 7.—It is unofficially stated that a satisfactory settlement of the London railway dispute has been reached. It is said the settlement includes the tubes and all London railway systems.

Londoners have not known another week so demoralizing to business since the air raid week in September, 1917, when there was a bombardment of the city almost every night. The trouble has been due to strikes by railroad workers.

Many thousands of commuters, depending on the Southwestern and Brighton railroads to get them to town, arrived at their stations to find there were no trains. The people soon gave up hope of reaching the city and finally returned home.

Government Steps Into Gap.

Several other local stoppages in transit were reported. In Southwestern England most of the people were kept away from work by an extension of the strike. The government stepped into the gap, using several hundred motor lorries to convey workers from outskirts of London, giving them free rides to their business places.

The cabinet was in session and Sir Albert H. Stanley, president of the Board of Trade, conferred with the Locomotive Engineers' and Firemen's associations at the Board of Trade.

A statement was made on behalf of the cabinet saying the government stood by its policy of non-interference. Union Leaders Plan Action.

Following the lead taken by the Amalgamated Society of Engineers in suspending the district committee of Belfast, the Clyde and London for violating the rules of the organization by participating in unauthorized strikes the trade union leaders of the United Kingdom are contemplating further drastic action in dealing with the revolutionary movement leading to the independent strikes in England, Scotland and Ireland.

SECRETARY ORDERS INQUIRY

War Department Employee Said to Have Been Bribed.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Secretary of War Baker told the Senate public buildings committee that the department of justice had been asked to investigate the charge that J. Wilton Trainor, a war department employee, solicited $100,000 as a fee for work in connection with the Chicago Speedway hospital project.

The charge was made by William S. Bennett, counsel for the Chicago Construction company, which built the hospital.

PACKERS AIDED CAMPAIGNS

Swift & Co. Helped Illinois and Kansas Candidates.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Swift & Co. contributed to the campaign funds of Representative Rodenburg of Illinois in 1912 and Representative Taggart of Kansas in 1915. Mr. Veeder said these were the only cases he knew of in which such contributions were made.

STRIKE TIES UP NEWSPAPERS

Director General of American Railways in France.

Maj. Gen. W. W. Atterbury, as director general of American railways in France, will play an important part in the reconstruction work of the French nation. He formerly was vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad.

EMBARGO IS UPHELD

Senators Defend British Limitation of Imports.

Resolutions Looking to Protest by State Department Is Sent to Calendar.

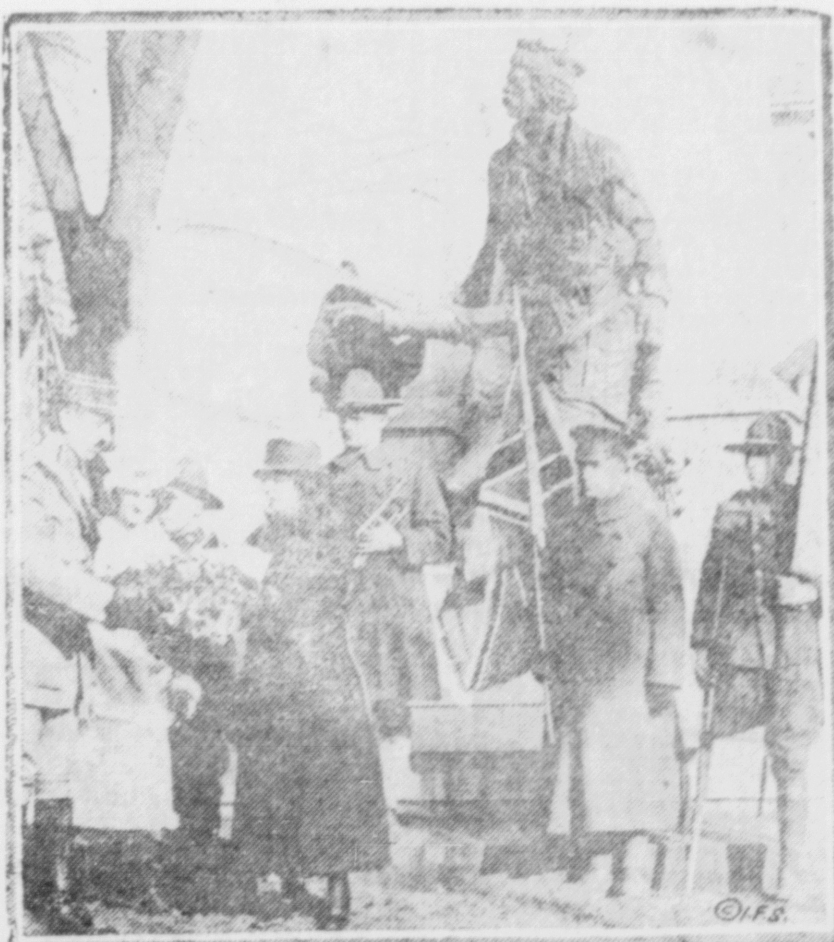

Washington, Feb. 7.—Discussion in the senate of the new British import embargo swung to defense of the British policy of protecting her industries and the Weeks resolution looking to a protest to London by the state department was displaced and sent to the senate calendar. Its further consideration will require a majority vote. Senators King of Utah, Democrat, and Poindexter of Washington and McCumber of North Dakota led in contending that England was justified in defending her industries.

Despite the reference of his resolution to the calendar, Senator Weeks said he planned at the first opportunity to call it up again, confident of favorable action.

In defense of the British policy, Senator Poindexter said: "Taking the large impartial view, I think Great Britain was justified. We ought to look out for our interests as France and England are entitled to look out for theirs."

"I protest," said Mr. McCumber, "against criticizing any nation for doing exactly what we have been doing or will do."

Memorial Services for Polish Heroes Held in Front of Kosciusko Monument in Washington

Memorial services were held recently in front of the Kosciusko monument in Washington by representatives of the allied and American armies for the soldiers of the little Polish army who fell while fighting the Hun. Mile. Rose Szwec, formerly secretary to Ignace Jan Paderewski, world-famous pianist and now leader of the new Polish republic, presented a laurel wreath to Lieutenant LaBat, who placed it at the base of the monument. Bugler Dangler of the Walter Reed Hospital blew taps for the Polish heroes.

GOVERNMENT TAKES STEPS TO BRING DOWN THE PRICES

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The government took steps today to bring down the prices of all commodities. Officials representing all departments headed by Secretary Redfield, called President Wilson, asking he appoint a committee to act as government industries board in peace times.

New Tax Bill Averages $60 for Every Person in Country

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Feb. 7.—The records of the treasury department and the appropriations committee of the house and senate today showed why congress is about to enact the biggest tax bill in history. A six billion dollar revenue measure that will take an average of sixty dollars this year and forty next year from every individual of the nation one hundred million population. These records show that the government will cost the people eighteen billion dollars this fiscal year and ten billion dollars for the fiscal year 1920. The tax bill now before congress raises only one third of the amount required, and there is only one other place to get it—through the sale of bonds. Therefore there will probably be bond issues in 1919 and 1920, possibly two this year.

League of Nations Commission Increases Membership.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The conference commission on a society of nations issued an official statement saying it had decided that representatives of Czechoslovakia, Greece, Poland and Roumania would be associated in its deliberations. This is in keeping with the decision to give four additional places on the commission to the smaller powers.

Hal Chase Is Cleared.

New York, Feb. 7.—Hal Chase, stormy petrel of baseball, was cleared on the charge of "throwing" games preferred against him by the Cincinnati club. He was declared "not guilty" by President John A. Heydler of the National league, who acted as judge, after a week's study of the evidence for and against him. "It is nowhere established that the accused was interested in any pool or wager that caused any game to result other than on its merits," said Heydler in his decision.

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 7.—Government ownership of railroads with operation jointly by the government workers and railroad officials was proposed today by the four big brotherhoods.

The brotherhoods' plan provides for government ownership with a guaranteed interest return, probably four per cent, the creation of an operating corporation without capital controlled by the board of directors, labor, railroad officials, and the president of the United States, each naming one-third, wage disputes to be adjusted by a committee organized on the same basis. Profit sharing by employer out of the net revenue, one-half to go to the government. Rates to be lowered under certain conditions.

Seattle Completely Paralyzed by Strike

(By United Press)

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 7.—The morning of the second day of Seattle's general strike found the city almost completely paralyzed. The streets and homes were lighted last night through the efforts of volunteer workers. Eighteen soup kitchens operated by the strikers fed long lines of hungry men. There have been no disorders so far. On one hand there are sixty thousand strikers, and on the other United States regular army trucks armed with machine guns and the police with machine guns mounted on trucks.

Trenton, N. J.—A strike that threatens to tie up every ship building yard on the Delaware river was called at Harriman. More than eight thousand employees walked out.

READY FOR EMERGENCY

Federal Troops are on Duty at Tacoma and Seattle.

General Strike of Practically All Trades Has Resulted in Paralyzing Business.

Seattle, Feb. 7.—Regular troops from Camp Lewis are quartered in Tacoma and Seattle to "stand ready for any emergency," as army officers said, arising from the general strike of 45,000 union men in sympathy with 25,000 shipyard workers who went out Jan. 21 to enforce demands for higher pay.

Brigadier General John L. Hayden commands the contingent of 800 soldiers in Seattle, and Brig. Gen. Frank B. Watson has under him in Tacoma, 36 miles from here, two battalions and a machine gun company.

Authority for the use of troops was granted by Secretary of War Baker upon advice from Governor Lister of the situation in Tacoma and Seattle.

Thirty-five thousand union men in the vicinity of Seattle quit work, labor leaders said, but in Tacoma response was not so general. The principal industries involved were the carmen, timber workers, barbers and retail clerks. Street cars stopped running in Seattle, schools closed, restaurants and theaters closed their doors, newspapers suspended and other industries ceased operating. Barber shops closed and elevators stopped running.

The suit is against the Field estate. She alleges that young Field, who married Miss Nancy Perkins, niece of the Langhorne sisters of Virginia, agreed to pay her that sum. Miss Marsh met Field in London.

SOVIETS AGREE TO CONFERENCE

ASK DATE BE NAMED

Are Ready to Enter Agreement With Entente on Condition That Letter Will Not Interfere With Russian Internal Affairs.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The Allies' supreme council, on receiving the acceptance of the Russian bolshevik government of the invitation to attend the conference on the Princes' Islands, immediately made arrangements to send a joint committee of two representatives from each of the five great powers to meet the representatives of the soviet government.

London, Feb. 7.—The Bolshevik foreign minister of Russia, Mr. Tchitcherin, announces in a wireless dispatch picked up here that the soviet government is willing to participate in the Princes' Island conference. The message was sent from Moscow.

The dispatch begins by referring to "complaints from the Entente press concerning international revolutionary propaganda," and declares that the soviet government is ready, "if there be occasion, to enter into a general agreement with the Entente powers on their undertaking not to interfere with the Russian internal affairs."

It then announces that the government is disposed to confer on the basis indicated in the note for the conference at Princes' Islands or elsewhere "with all the Entente powers or some of them separately, or even with some of the Russian political groups at the request of the Entente powers."

In conclusion, the Entente powers are asked to inform the soviet government where its representatives are to go, also the date and route to be taken.

Won't Predict Action.

Paris, Feb. 7.—When Professor Boris A. Bakhtmetiev, a member of the council formed by antibolshevik factions here, was advised of M. T. Tchitcherin's acceptance of the invitation to the Princes' Island conference, he declared he would be unable to say what the Russian committee in Paris would do. He indicated that a copy of the official message must be received and discussed before any announcement would be made.

Bakhtmetiev said that the dispatch from Tchitcherin was a surprise.

Called "Ignoble Comedy."

"It is an ignoble comedy," said Russian leaders here when they were shown dispatches stating that the bolsheviks were ready to go to the Prinkipos conference.

They expressed the opinion that the bolshevik leaders would represent to their followers that the Allies' invitation was recognition of them and would spread the report that the Allies, fearing them, had asked for peace, thus hoping to strengthen their position.

All Things come to him Who Waits

That was a popular proverb even in the days of Lincoln, but the young man who was destined to become the President of the United States, found that things would come all the faster if they were met half way. Thrift is half the battle of Success. To have a bank-book at your back, is a better and surer method of "getting there" than waiting for a stroke of luck to come your way.

Go out and meet Success by banking as much of your wages as you possibly can.

Don't delay. Start today.

MUSIC AT CHAMBER

Typewriters Click to Accompaniment of Classical Music, New Note of Gladness

This morning typewriters clicked in harmony to the swelling tones, to the bewitching patter and then sensuous, luxuriant shades of tone colors comprising the Mignon opera.

Then came a soulful romance by Grunfeld. Busy office men in the Iron Exchange building listened intently.

Schubert's Serenade, always admired, delighted the auditors and some in the hallways beyond wondered who the artist was favoring the Iron Exchange building in the early morning hours. The touch, the tone, the music evoked from the keys was something wonderful.

Then came "Annie Laurie" and it struck a responsive chord in the breast of F. T. Lincoln, the secretary. The bonnie banks and braes, that Scotch hymn, just poured forth like a brook in the moors.

The scene changed and Keler-Bel's "Lustspiel" sparked like the rain drops in a summer shower.

Visitors crowded in and found no artist at the piano. It was a Seeburg "X-pression" reproducing piano, operated by electricity, which had been installed in the Chamber by Wm. Graham. Auditors agreed with Mr. Graham that it gave forth the most human-like touch-tones ever evoked from a player-piano.

The piano will play a part in many social gatherings at the Chamber and its installation has been generally approved of.

HALF OF FRENCH ARMY LOST

1,500,000 killed in battle and an equal number seriously wounded is the enormous sacrifice of France in the world war. This constituted about half of the men she put into the field—a larger ratio of her 36,000,000 population than any other nation gave. America owes France a large debt of gratitude for this heroic outpouring of her life's blood that liberty might live, and also to the peasants of France who discovered a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, prevented many surgical operations and saved thousands of lives. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

Thompson gave a two-minute go on boxing as it ought to be carried on for clean sport.

Alderman Ole Anderson's son Ed, also made a showing in the younger class.

"No father or mother need be ashamed to send their boy to the club" said Sergeant Hanson, as there nothing but training of an athletic nature carried on.

Saturday afternoon will be set aside for boys, as room is becoming limited. Mr. Rash was an interested spectator at the club.

Sergeant Hanson gave an exhibition of the "Kelly" drill with Seaman Jackson and Private Thompson as the subjects. It created an amusing affair, all spectators being deeply interested in the "Kelly" says, "Kelly didn't say."

CONSERVATION RECIPES GIVEN

A. G. TROMMOLD'S SPUDS

Beats any War Time Measure by Using the Whole Potato—Other Recipes to Follow

Not all the recipes, good ones too, for conservation emanate from the women. Brainerd boasts of its men who know a thing or two in the cooking line.

Dave Schrader, popular insurance man, has a brand of sausage meat he makes on his farm which is a winner. Mr. Schrader raises his own pork on his farm near Hubert. Take some Chester White pig fattened on corn, boil it a while and cut in strips. Add to this some boiled rabbit, cut in sections and run the whole thru a sausage grinder and you have a mixture to delight the most epicurean palate. The lean meat of the rabbit and the rich pork harmonize and will suit the most fastidious taste.

A. G. Trommald, county register of deeds, has a way of frying potatoes that beats any war time measure proposed. During the recent unpleasantness one was advised to peel potatoes closely, but nobody thought of using the whole spud. Mr. Trommald selects good potatoes, washes and scrubs them thoroughly and then has them sliced with their jackets on. Accompanying a sirloin steak, fried onions, the potatoes make a rare dish. In the same way potatoes, thoroughly cleaned and scrubbed down and baked after such a bath, have a jacket which tastes well. This potato recipe is one which many hunters use and every small boy engaged in a potato baking tournament will remember. Potatoes baked in coals—well, there is nothing to equal it.

Brainerd men will be heard from in the future and hunters' methods of cooking game and fishermen's methods of cooking fish in paper and clay, baking beans, serving lute-fish, etc., will be given. The ladies have no monopoly on the art of cooking or on original recipes, not by a long shot.

"TOO FAT TO FIGHT"

Rex Beach's Drama of Human Emotions at the Best, Wealth of Comedy in the Picture
At the Best tonight, "Too Fat to Fight."

Rex Beach's drama of human emotions "Too Fat to Fight," has been officially indorsed and given the highest possible recommendation by the Young Men's Christian Association.

A committee of Y. M. C. A. officials, headed by William Sloane, chairman of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A., attended a private showing of the picture and promptly attached their O. K. to the new and virile Rex Beach story which depicts the wonderful work of the Y. M. C. A., Y. M. H. A., Y. W. C. A., K. of C. and Salvation Army in the interests of humanity.

The executive committee which attended the private screening consisted of the following nationally known men:

William Sloane, William H. Crawford, E. A. Goewey, James R. Crowell, Walter A. Sinclair and Albert E. Elliott. In addition to these officials more than fifty attaches of the National Y. M. C. A. Headquarters were brought in for personal opinions which tested the production from all angles.

The wealth of comedy which abounds throughout the six intensely interesting parts drew enthusiastic applause from the Y. M. C. A. audience. The gripping dramatic episodes were also warmly received and held the spectators in unmistakable suspense.

The Y. M. C. A. board not only indorsed and praised the picture from a technical angle, but, in addition, the strength of the story and the rapidity of the action of the play were subjects for commendation.

At the Best Saturday

John Barrymore had an amusing, as well as exciting, experience while taking scenes in "On the Quiet," which will be shown here tomorrow. When the yacht on which the star was sailing came within the zone in which the German U-boats were reported to be operating, off Jersey coast, things happened.

In "On the Quiet" there is an exciting chase when Barrymore escapes from the brother of the girl he loves, who is trying to stop the young people from marrying, and these scenes were photographed off the Jersey coast. While the action was going on, and the brave brother of the picture was following the speedy yacht of the elopers with another swift craft, Barrymore was perturbed by a flock of aeroplanes and hydroplanes which circled about, as well as a fleet of other fast crafts, and he said, disgustedly to Chet Withey, the director: "A fellow can't even make pictures out on the ocean without being bothered by rubbernecks."

A few moments later one of the hydroplanes came close to the Barrymore yacht and curtly delivered the message: "Make for shore. German submarines are operating here."

The yacht made for shore speedily.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jal Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jal Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

DISEASE AND COAL

Scientific Discoveries Establish a Connection.

World Declared to Have Been Free From Physical Ills Before the Beds That Supply Fuel Were Laid Down.

One of the most curious of discussions has been started by Prof. Roy L. Moodie, a scientist of high reputation, who has made a special study of the beginning of disease. Once upon a time, he says, there was no such thing as disease in either animals or plants. But it was a very long while ago. His inquiries led him to the conclusion that diseases began in the coal-forming period, when the vast deposits of our fossil fuel were laid down in peaty bogs from the luxuriant vegetation of regions then tropical—in Pennsylvania, along the southern Alleghenies and elsewhere.

In those very ancient times, ever so many millions of years ago, the earth was covered with water far more extensively than at present, and on the bottom grew fields of "sea lilies"—just as they do today in marine shallows. They are oddly imitative of plants, though really animals, and fossil remains of them found in coal show enlargements of the stems plainly due to attack by parasite worms. During the coal period there seems to have been an extensive development of those forms of microscopic vegetation that we call fungi and bacteria. Nearly all plant diseases are due to attack by parasitic fungi. Most diseases of men and animals are attributable to bacteria of one species or another that have acquired the habit of parasitism. Minute bacteria and fungi—traces of their colonies, that is to say—have been found in the fossil droppings of extinct species of fishes, embalmed, as one might say, in our coal deposits. In plant structures of corresponding antiquity are discovered natural "cultures" of bacteria, silicified.

The fossil teeth of long-extinct species of fishes have been found affected by "dental caries"—irregular decayed spots. Are we to suppose that those finny creatures of early days suffered from toothache? Twenty or thirty millions of years ago arrived the age of reptiles, which developed the giant lizards, that were the largest animals ever known in the world, if some modern whales be excepted. Some of their bones (preserved in the rocks) show deformities obviously due to disease. Certain of these deformities suggest chronic inflammation of the joints; others, tuberculosis. After the age of reptiles came the early mammals. They and their descendants (including our selves) have certainly had a due allowance of disease ever since. But (if Professor Moodie's dictum is to be accepted) there was no such thing as disease in the world up to the time when the coal beds were laid down.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Rebuilding Saloniki.

An ambitious plan for rebuilding Saloniki was outlined recently by Mr. Thomas H. Mawson at King's college, London. Saloniki, he said, had been devastated by a great fire, and it had been decided to rebuild it on such a scale as to make it one of the most important cities in the East. M. Venzelos had determined to make it a more beautiful city. The city was fortunately situated in regard to parks, for it had at its disposal tracts of land which would be made into some of the finest parks in the world without a penny of purchase money being paid over.

$750,000,000 for Railroads.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Director General Hines, appearing before the House Appropriations committee, urged that Congress appropriate $750,000,000 additional for the revolving fund, for which $500,000,000 originally was authorized by Congress. He said the appropriation should be made regardless of whether government control of the roads was relinquished within a few months, as the money was necessary for improvements which the roads would be unable to finance.

Louis E. Hathaway, Brainerd Man, Gains Good Will of the Soldiers in France

CHRISTMAS SURPRISES GIVEN

Louis E. Hathaway, Brainerd "Y" man in service in France, according to his letter has gained the goodwill of the soldiers and shows he has the right spirit and knows what to do when previously arranged programs break down. His letter follows and is well worth reading, in view of the criticism being levelled at the Y. M. C. A. for not coming up to the mark:

Lifol le Grand, France, January 3, 1919.

Dear Ones—
 This is the first chance I have had for some days past to drop you a line. The holidays were sure a busy time, but now for a time at least, the stress has let down a bit.

I suppose the first thing you will want to know is how we spent Christmas. I will have to quote one of the boys (one you would at least expect an expression of such a kind from, and the captain says it is entered in every letter home) "If anyone had told me I would have a real good time Christmas, in France, I'd have said it was impossible, but we did have a fine time." When I heard that coming from this particular boy I felt repaid for all the effort it cost.

Several days before Christmas I learned that it was doubtful if "Y" boxes and supplies would arrive in time for Christmas, so I got my traveling orders and hiked away to Paris and after several strenuous days, located enough boxes, chocolate and cigars, etc., to supply my outfit. Also a lot of pretty paper decorations and flags, a Santa Claus outfit and yards of tinsel and Xmas tree decorations. The day before Xmas I went with the boys across the fields to the mountains where we got greens, beautiful ivy, mistletoe and a beautiful Christmas tree. That night after every one was in bed, we decorated the mess hall and the Xmas tree. It sure was pretty. We did not let the men in for breakfast, but that is getting ahead of my story. We worked until 11:30, then the whole crowd walked about two miles to the little town below us and attended mass at midnight, in the beautiful old church. It was a beautiful service. The choir was composed of Red Cross nurses. In the front of the church was built a stable and a manger, with the wax figures of the Holy family, in tableaux of the birth of Jesus.

Well after breakfast we lighted all the Japanese lanterns and the Christmas tree, dressed up Santa Claus, the bugler blew assembly and the fun began. The men marched in and they were sure surprised at seeing the decorations and Santa. Captain Brazier and Lieut. Silver assisted in giving out the gifts. We gave each man three big bars of chocolate, a can of tobacco, a plug of chewing, a cigar, three packs of cigarettes, a bag of lemon-drops, a bag of cookies, five packages of chewing gum and two packs of Lucky Strike cigarettes, and most of them received their home packages. Santa was full of pep and had a joke for each man and they were a tickled bunch of kids. It was such a surprise. After that was over we decorated the tables prettily. The officers all came over for dinner and had the center table. We had paper caps for nearly every one, and a horn or a whistle. The officers responded to toasts, the men sang, and the horns tooted. We threw confetti and serpentine, and had a wonderful time. After dinner we all went to the big warehouse, that we had made into a wonderful theatre. Had a big band for the orchestra, 20 vaudeville acts and several good boxing bouts. The show was repeated at night, closing a wonderful day.

New Year's day we had another big show and candy and smokes and gum—and thus ended the holidays. The weather here, at present, is miserable. It snowed at Christmas enough to whiten the ground, but it rains almost continually and is damp and chilly. Most of our men are on convoy duty taking trains of food into Germany for our army.

It is nearly seven months since I came to France and I have not taken my leave of absence yet, but next week I am going on my furlough. Nice and Monte Carlo and to Italy and then when I come back I expect to go to Germany. Don't expect to get home until late summer, though I really am getting quite homesick and I have enough of France.

Wishing you all the very best New Year's wishes and all prosperity and happiness, I am as always,
 LOUIS E. HATHAWAY.

"CARLETON OR BUST"

Brainerd and St. Cloud to Clash at the Local High School Auditorium

Tomorrow night the basketball team of the local high school will clash with the team from St. Cloud, at the high school auditorium at 8:15. The game will be hard and fast and both teams are equally confident of being the victor. Our boys have been working hard, they are in the best of condition and playing good basketball and they stand more than an even chance of winning.

They are weakened however by the loss of Captain Nelson, who is out of the game, having suffered a twisted knee in the Staples game. His loss to the team is severely felt, and the quint will be strengthened greatly when he returns. It is expected that he will be able to play again in a week or two, his knee doing as well as could be hoped for. His place will probably be filled by Warner, a good fast guard who made a good showing in the Little Falls game. Warner is the brother of Sergeant "Stick" Warner who was captain of the team of 1916.

The team has improved wonderfully since the Little Falls game and the fans may be sure that they will see a very different article of ball than when we were defeated by the down-river team. The boys are full of pep and they will do all in their power to win this game. The rooting has been organized, some good yells have been developed, and the students are going to do their share. A great deal of credit is due to the work of Beyer who has been working his hardest to whip the boys into shape. This game promises to be one of the hardest of the season and if we win, it will be a big step toward our goal—Carleton.

Following is the probable line-up: H. Cunningham, guard; J. Warner, guard; A. Reid, center; H. Bakula, forward; W. Higbe, forward. Subs, C. Ebner, forward; C. Sheffo, guard.

Why He Wanted Arm Straight.

A Canadian officer, wounded early in the war, was sent to one of the institutions to have his left arm made over. The elbow had been so badly shattered that surgery, wonderful as its skill and resources are, could not entirely reconstruct the joint. So the officer was given a choice of two things—either to have a weak, movable elbow, or a strong stiff one. Without hesitation the Canadian chose the stiff elbow, and he astonished the surgeons by asking that the arm be made perfectly straight.

They pointed out to him that the arm would be far more useful if the elbow was set at an angle. If set straight he wouldn't be able even to put his hand in the pocket of his trousers. But the Canadian had anticipated that argument by arranging with his tailor to have the pocket so low that by hunching his shoulder he could get his hand into it. The reason he wanted the arm made rigidly straight was to be able to use a hunting rifle and a billiard cue.

Poisonous Waste Causes Sickness

When the kidneys are well they filter waste matter from the blood. When sluggish or overworked, the kidneys fail to clean the blood, and poisonous substances lodge in joints and muscles to cause aches, pains and soreness. Foley Kidney Pills strengthen, act quickly and relieve kidney and bladder trouble. H. P. Dunn, druggist. mwf

Not a Bad Old Custom.

Until recent years there was a most respectable old inn in Warwickshire, England, the proprietor of which was accustomed to invite all his patrons to accompany him and his wife Sunday mornings to a church directly opposite the inn. On returning from service each customer was expected to partake of refreshments offered by the hospitable landlord free of charge.

Worth $50.00 a Bottle

Wm. Barnes, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has been worth $50.00 a bottle to me. I had the flu, followed by pneumonia, which left me weak, with a persistent cough. The cough hung on. Some one advised Foley's Honey and Tar. I have completely recovered and do not cough at all." H. P. Dunn, druggist. mwf

DELAY IN MOVING MAIL IS DENIED

General Pershing Says Letters to and From Soldiers Are Handled Promptly.

EXPLAINS DIFFICULTIES

Washington, Feb. 7.—The war department has received a cable message from General Pershing denying reports that mail to and from the American Expeditionary Forces had become congested at French rail heads.

The general said there was no delay or accumulation of mail for the United States and no accumulation of correctly addressed mail arriving in France for the soldiers.

Only 126 Sacks Returned. General Pershing said there was 1,210 sacks of incorrectly addressed mail at the Central army postoffice in France now being redirected, while only 126 sacks of dead letters had been shipped to the United States in January. The incorrectly addressed mail at the Central office, he said, could be placed in one American car.

General Pershing quoted from a report made to him by Colonel Howe, director of the Postal Express service, which said that "first class mail moves on scheduled passenger trains and reaches present rail heads of army of occupation in six days from time of arrival in France."

Terminals Cleared Promptly. Regarding the outgoing mail, Colonel Howe said it required an average of fourteen and one-half days for mail dispatched from divisional rail heads to reach the Bordeaux terminal and an average of 2.20 days for mail dispatched from fixed postoffices on line of communications to reach that terminal. "The Bordeaux terminal," said Colonel Howe, "reports its floors cleared of mail after each shipment to the state. If there is any delay in mail from France other than these figures show it is on the water elsewhere."

GERMANY GROWS ARROGANT

Supreme War Council May Take Drastic Action.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The supreme war council will meet at Versailles to take measures to impose on Germany "the full will of the Allies," says the Matin, because of the unwillingness of Germany to carry out the armistice terms except under certain conditions.

There has been a change in the attitude of Germany, according to the newspaper, and it is being manifested by arrogance toward the Allies.

Chicago-Milwaukee Air Line.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Hydro-airplanes capable of carrying 40 passengers will be in operation between Chicago and Milwaukee beginning June 1, according to Capt. Benjamin B. Lipsner, until recently superintendent of the government air mail service, and now at the head of a syndicate to install air freight and passenger service between different points. "We will have a regular schedule between the cities," Captain Lipsner said. "The time in transit being 40 minutes and the cost $25 for the round trip."

Gabriel D'Annunzio.

Maj. Gabriel D'Annunzio, the leader of the Italian airmen, is a most extraordinary personality. Famous before the war as a poet and dramatist, as the creator of a new Italian literature, he has affected the language of his country more profoundly than anyone since Dante; a notable figure in society, much discussed for his luxurious tastes, he stepped into the forefront of the battle as a soldier when over fifty years old. Since then he added exploit to exploit, stealing into enemy ports in small craft at night to torpedo battleships, carrying out the longest and most dangerous air raids. When the armistice was signed he commanded a squadron of picked young airmen.

Big Estate in Britain.

"Country Life" (London, England) advertises in a recent issue an auction sale of part of a British landed estate whose size might cause even our biggest ranch-owners to lift their eyebrows. This consists of "the northern portion of the Sutherland estates," extending to an area of 230,132 acres! This vast tract of hundreds of square miles, however, is only a small part of the holdings of the duke of Sutherland, which amount to "about 1,358,000 acres." The tract to be sold, it is announced, "affords the opportunity to acquire the whole length of the famous salmon rivers, the Navar and Halladale."

FOURTEEN MEN ARE INDICTED

He Knows Whereof He Speaks

J. F. Harper, 416 Navarro St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "I consider Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely the best cough remedy on the market. I know whereof I speak, having tried it myself. Your remedy acts quickly and relief is permanent." Good for colds, coughs, croup. Contains no opiates. H. P. Dunn, druggist. mwf

Balloon Catches Fire.

Salisbury, Md., Feb. 7.—A United States army balloon in charge of Al Pilot A. Leo Stevens of Washington caught fire from static electricity when 7,200 feet over this town, but a landing was made before the bag exploded. Pilot Stevens had four passengers: Lieut. Col. H. A. Dargue, Lieut. Col. George B. Hunter, Capt. M. J. Phillips and Capt. L. B. Motford. The five fought the fire and a safe landing was soon made in fast-developing 35-mile gale.

Are You Losing Your Grip on Health?

Physician's Prescription to Increase the Health and Strength of Anemic, Run-down Men and Women

As a result of the tremendous strain which the war has put upon so many people, the nerve cells have become devitalized, the whole system weakened and thousands of men and women are today losing their grip on health simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron. It is through iron in the red coloring matter of the blood that life sustaining oxygen enters the body and enables the blood to change food into living tissue muscle and brain. If people would only keep their blood filled with strength-giving iron by taking Nuxated Iron when they feel weak and run-down they might readily build up their red blood corpuscles and quickly become stronger and healthier in every way. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how lean you are now or how fat you are with without keeping firm. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength and see how much you have gained. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength of weak, nervous, "run-down" men and women in two weeks' time in many instances. Two months' treatment guarantees successful and entirely satisfactory results in every instance or they will refund your money. Nuxated Iron is on sale at all good druggists.

HARJU GAINS $4,750 VERDICT

Jury Returned Sealed Verdict, Opened this Morning in Case of Harju vs. Allen

CRIMINAL CALENDAR FOLLOWS

In district court before Judge W. S. McClenahan, the jury returned a sealed verdict in the case of Arvid Harju vs. Dr. F. A. Allen of Crosby, which was read in court awarding a verdict of $4,750 for the plaintiff. The latter claimed damages for alleged improper treatment of a fractured leg.

The criminal call was then taken up, the first case being against Geo. Anderson, formerly of Brainerd, charged with manslaughter. Some time will be taken in gaining the jury. Out of twenty-four men examined, ten were accepted. The first venire was thus quickly exhausted and the court ordered a second venire of seven men returnable Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

George W. Bahma, paper mill employe, Brainerd.

Herman Fleischer, farmer, Daggett Brook.

George Klein, farmer, Pequot.

Christ Anderson, shopman, Brainerd.

Robert Maghan, farmer, Bay Lake. P. M. Zakariassen, farmer and dairyman, outskirts Brainerd.

Ed Brandt, farmer near Deerwood.

R. J. Hartley, insurance and real estate, Brainerd.

Ed Elmore, farmer, Bay Lake.

During the examination of Gus Burtrum of Crosby Beach, who had been drawn for the jury by special venire, and was not accepted, he said he had heard nothing about the case except that on Thursday evening between 7 and 7:30 o'clock, two women approached him near the Best theatre and one of them said, "The man is innocent."

Judge McClenahan then addressed the jury and cautioned them from holding any conversation with any one in regard to the case or of permitting any one to speak to them about the case.

Court then adjourned to Saturday morning.

BOOST—DON'T KNOCK

Editor, Brainerd Dispatch:

In answer to the article in your newspaper in your issue of the 6th inst. concerning the South Side Skating rink, signed by "A Skater," the committee has the following to say:

We have collected $180.05 by public subscription and a benefit dance. Of this we have spent $135.55 for cost of warming house, brooms, shovels and other expenses of the rink, and we have $44.50 on hand. Our work is entirely gratuitous and none of us have received, or will receive, or accept any pay for our work. This undertaking has been a lot of work to us, for sometimes we have had to work until after midnight to flood the rink. We do not object to the work, however, provided it is appreciated. We are not lacking in enthusiasm, nor do we intend to quit.

However, the weather for three weeks in January was too mild for skating, and the rink could not be kept in shape. Last Monday it became colder, and we cleared about one half the rink of snow so as to accommodate quite a number of skaters. If the person who signed himself "A Skater," and others interested, will come to the rink tonight, you will find us working hard to clear it of all snow. We will endeavor to place it in good shape for Saturday and Sunday. You say, "We skaters are very willing to help." We therefore invite you to the rink tonight and other times to help us and thus show your interest in the project. We ask the co-operation of all the skaters interested in the rink. It is hard for the committee to do it all. We should have help, and further, we are always glad to have skaters offer reasonable suggestions and boost for the rink, for it is a public enterprise.

No smoking is allowed in the warming house but, as the committee cannot always be around to enforce the rules, some of the younger boys may have smoked when we were not there. We object to it and shall endeavor to prevent it if possible, but cannot be held responsible if boys gather there in the daytime and smoke, for the committee cannot be around. We have not enough money to hire an overseer.

Therefore, we would say to the "Skater," and all others interest-

SOLDIER MINISTER TO PREACH IN CITY

Rev. Fred Errington, Formerly Chaplain at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Sunday at

1ST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Glad to Have Soldiers Attend Services, Met Many Brainerd Men in Camp and Field

Rev. Fred Errington, formerly chaplain at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, will preach Sunday morning at the First Congregational church, and will be glad to meet there soldiers of the city, for he met many Brainerd men in camp and field.

Rev. Errington was educated in Hartley College, Manchester, England, and the Theological Seminary in Chicago, graduating with the class of 1913. He has been in the United States ten years. His first pastorate of three years was at Long Rapids, Michigan. There he organized a church and built a fine rural church in which he was ordained.

From Long Rapids he went to the Chicago Theological Seminary and completed the course. Then he served 18 months at the Sumnerdale Congregational church in Chicago, and to be one of the hardest fields in that city, and it was accepted for the experience it would afford a young minister.

October, 1914, to October, 1918, he was at Grand Lodge, Michigan, and resigned to enter Fort Harrison. During his four years' pastorate 100 members were added, the property was improved and upon his return he was asked to remain at Grand Lodge with an increase in salary.

Rev. Errington comes to Brainerd to look over the local field, and is anxious to meet congregation and friends of the church.

Y. M. C. A. TO BUILD; ELKS PLAN A HOME

Government Request Urging Building Operations be Carried on Will be Followed

"Y" TO HAVE BIG ADDITION

Elks Building Committee to be Named Soon and Decisive Steps Taken Shortly After

A. J. Hayes, Judge Walter F. Wieland and B. L. Lagerquist were named directors at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday evening.

The building committee confers with the full board of directors next week at which time the building project of the "Y" greatly enlarging the structure, will be taken up and it is expected to be adopted.

In line with the government request to start building this season and thus give more employment to returned men from government service, the Elks of Brainerd are taking up the project of an Elks home in the city in which it is proposed to have business firms on the main floor and a hall, lockers, buffet, lounge, room, etc., in the Elks section of the building.

It is expected to name a building committee soon. The building when completed will house a lodge which now has over 300 members and is growing constantly.

BRAINERD'S OLDEST STORIES OF TODAY

Down at Little Falls they can tell cold weather by the clock in the court house tower. Every time it hits 32 below like last January or 21 below like on Feb. 4, the clock freezes up and the hands go on strike.

The Little Falls Transcript published a half-column editorial on the "Vanished Maid Servant" problem Feb. 5, and two columns to the right in the same paper had a boxed story telling about four Little Falls ladies advertising in the Transcript for maids and getting help in 24 hours.

It is reported that telephone equipment has been perfected to carry five telephone conversations over the same circuit at the same time. That's nothing new. Any good rural line is doing that same thing.

Boost, and do not knock the project, and all lend a hand to make the South Side Skating Rink a success, and we will endeavor to fill all our frust.

FAMOUS EXPOSITION BUILDING IN MILL CITY

To House the Northwestern Automobile and Industrial Exposition in Minneapolis

FOR THE WEEK OF FEB. 15 TO 22

Visitor will See More Separate Shows Than There are Rings in the Biggest Circus

Standing on the East bank of the Mississippi across the river from the Great Northern station towering above the sky-line of Minneapolis is the famous Exposition Building where the Northwestern Automobile and Industrial Exposition will be held the week of Feb. 15-22.

It adjoins the site of the largest flour mill in the world. The Godfrey house the first home in Minneapolis, stands across the street and within a short distance is the State University. The Exposition Building stands midway between the Steel Arch bridge and the beautiful Third Avenue bridge, opened last summer at a cost of $2,000,000. All street cars that cross to the East Side pass within a block of the main entrance, and with one-minute service promised, there is certain to be no congestion.

The Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Burlington, Great Western, Omaha and Northwestern railroad trains run into the Great Northern station, less than three-minute street car ride from the big showhouse. The Milwaukee, Rock Island and Soo trains run into the Milwaukee station at the west end of the Third Avenue bridge, a ten-minute walk.

The Exposition building was erected in 90 days and has stood for more than 30 years as an eloquent testimonial to the enterprise and spirit of the men who helped make the great northwest what it is. This month it will be re-dedicated to the cause of a re-united and prosperous northwest after the horror of war.

The building stands on hallowed ground, in the opinion of the older generation, for it was the site of the old Winslow House. This famous hostelry was the social and business center of old St. Anthony town and many of the nation's famous people were entertained there 50 years ago. Each summer it was the center of a colony of southerners and later on became an institution of learning.

Those who visit the great exposition will see more separate shows than there are rings in the biggest circus. In addition to the annual auto show, there will be the world's largest tractor show, a truck show and an accessory show. This does not take into consideration the third floor, where the industrial exhibits will be housed. Here also will be a variety of distinct shows. The office equipment show, the building material show, the fashion show, the food show, and the electrical show are some of the features promised.

By way of introduction to the main event, the tractor men have made arrangements for a monster tractor parade that will wind through the streets of Minneapolis at noon on Feb. 10. There will be in line more than 100 machines, comprising all the models that ever came from factory. At the head of the parade will be a "whippet" tank and at the tail of the procession will be another of the little engines of war that figured so prominently in the defeat of Germany. After the parade they will be installed in the Exposition building where seasoned tank officers will demonstrate their workings during the show.

Decorations surpassing in beauty and variety of design anything ever displayed in the northwest are being put in place by a crew of men expert in their line. With 3,000 extra lights shining through the purple and gold trappings, the contractor promises an interior that might have come out of an Arabian Nights story.

Railroads are preparing for the greatest traffic in years and Twin City hotel men say they will be able to accommodate all visitors.

REGULAR SCHOOL SINCE DEC. 30TH

Gradually Increasing Enrollment and Attendance, Until the City Schools Again Normal

HALF-DAY ON SATURDAYS

Epidemic Caused Loss of Seven Weeks School Work—Some Scholars Absent 11 Weeks

Supt. W. C. Cobb of the city schools has given the Dispatch the following review in school work:

No general report of the city schools has been published since the September report published early in October. Until the present month, no continuous season of the public schools for a period of one month has been held, which accounts for the absence of the periodical report. Since December 30th, the schools have been in regular session with a gradually increasing enrollment and daily attendance, until at the present time, the attendance in all of the buildings is normal and the work is gradually approaching that of a normal school year.

Since January 1st, the schools have been in session for one half day on Saturday, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of making up a part of the work lost on account of the epidemic. A large majority of the parents in Brainerd having children in the schools have accepted the plan of the Saturday morning session in good spirit, approaching fully the need for making up work, if the pupils are to attain the expected and allotted year's work.

The State Department of Education notified every school in the state that it expected that school work lost through the closing of schools would be made up as far as possible and the schools throughout the state, generally, have provided means in compliance with this request. Many of the schools used a part of the Christmas vacation and most of the schools of the state will hold regular sessions during the whole or a part of the customary holidays. When it is remembered that all the school children in Brainerd were out of school for seven consecutive weeks and that more than one-half of all the pupils in the Brainerd schools were not inside of a school room for eleven consecutive weeks and a considerable number of pupils for even a longer period than eleven weeks, it may be realized that there is a very special need for special effort on the part of all, in order to complete a reasonably satisfactory school year. The Saturday morning sessions will be discontinued after Saturday, March 1st, and it is the present plan to hold no school session on Saturday, Feb. 22, or Washington's birthday. The schools will be in regular session, however, during a part of Feb. 12, and patriotic exercises will be held in all school buildings in the afternoon, in celebration of both Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays at that time.

The regular mid-year examinations which should have been held about Jan. 15th, have been postponed one month and begin next Wednesday. Principals and teachers in conference with the superintendent have estimated that the grades from the fourth to the eighth are about one month behind regular schedule. The lower grades are somewhat further behind than the intermediate and grammar grades, and it will probably be desirable, to withhold promotions in the first three grades until a few weeks later in order to more correctly determine the status of different classes.

The high school and eight grades suffered the least of all the schools, and the high school teachers estimate that most of their classes are now about where they should be at mid-year. If no additional setbacks occur between now and June 1st, it is hoped and expected that by teaching during a part of the usual Easter vacation and revising the outline of school work so as to omit some of the less essential topics, the schools will complete a reasonably satisfactory year and that a majority of the pupils will receive their credits as usual. It is inevitable, however, that pupils, backward in their work under normal conditions, and who lost the maximum rather than the minimum amount of time because of the epidemic, will fail to receive full credit for the present year.

On February 9th, or soon thereafter, a general health tournament will be started among the grade children of the schools. This movement is part of the national plan for emphasizing the importance of health conservation among all the people, and, in Minnesota the health crusade is being conducted under the auspices of the Minnesota Public Health Association with the endorsement and backing of the State Department of Education and the Junior Red Cross. Parents are asked to

During the present month, a night school for foreigners has been started at the Harrison school, meeting three evenings a week, with an enrollment up to date of 25 adult students. This evening school is for the purpose of assisting adult foreigners to speak, read and write the English language as a preparation for naturalization, and is a part of the plan of the general government in the work of Americanization of its foreign population. The school is free and open to all foreigners.

To the patriotic exercises to be held in each of the school buildings in celebration of Lincoln and Washington's Birthdays next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, the public is cordially invited.

A special invitation is extended to G. A. R. Post, Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies' Circle, and all returned soldier boys who may be in Brainerd to attend the exercises at the high school building where patriotic music will be rendered by the school and an address delivered by Rev. E. A. Cooke of Brainerd.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Prepare this mixture, though, at home in a mussy and troublesome way. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Higher French Mail Rate.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Attention was called by the War department to the fact that when letters sent to officers and enlisted men in the expeditionary forces are addressed directly to the town or city in France where the recipient is stationed, such mail automatically comes under foreign postal regulations and requires foreign postage rates of five cents per ounce. When soldier mail is addressed, giving the unit to which the soldier belongs, the domestic rate of postage, three cents per ounce, applies.

WANT UNIFORM EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Significant Resolutions Introduced in the Massachusetts Legislature.

SOUND REASONS ADVANCED

Increasing Use of Labor-Saving Machinery and the Return of the Country's Military and Naval Forces Put Forward as Arguments.

Resolutions filed in the Massachusetts legislature call upon the United States congress to establish a uniform eight-hour workday throughout the nation. The resolutions are in part as follows:

"Whereas the constantly increasing productiveness of machinery created by human labor and resulting from the inventive genius of mankind enables the working class to produce a given amount of wealth in an ever-decreasing length of time; and

"Whereas the return of the military and naval forces of the United States from the battlefields of Europe and their return to industry under former conditions would result in an intense competition for jobs between them and the formerly untrained workers, especially women and minors, whom the worldwide war has called into industrial activity, which would cause injustice both to the returned men and to those now holding their former jobs; therefore be it

"Resolved, that it is the opinion of the general court of Massachusetts that public interest will be better served, labor more fully employed and prosperity more general by the reduction of the hours of labor to not exceeding eight per day throughout the nation, except in cases of emergency; and it respectfully petitions the congress of the United States to take necessary steps to provide such uniform workday."

SHORT HOURS ON FARMS ADVOCATED BY BANKER

Reduction of working hours on the farm is regarded as one of the problems of reconstruction by W. H. Tinkham, field agent of the Federal Farm Loan bank of Springfield, Mass. The war transferred so much farm labor to the munition factories and the army and navy that it is not to be expected that this labor will be willing to return to the old long-hour conditions, in the opinion of Mr. Tinkham.

Have Advanced Program.

Federal ownership, operation, or regulation of public and semipublic utilities was recommended in the report of the committee on reconstruction of the American Federation of Labor, made public after its approval by the federation's executive council. Government ownership of all wharves and docks, federal legislation to prevent child labor, and equality in pay for men and women workers also were urged.

The committee opposed the formation of a labor political party, on the ground that "the disastrous experience of organized labor in America with political parties of its own amply justified the American Federation of Labor's nonpartisan political policy."

American Labor Party.

The newly formed American Labor party of New York was formally organized by delegates said to represent 882 organizations and 500,000 trade unionists.

The platform adopted favors President Wilson's 14 points, self-determination for Ireland, a 44-hour week, equal pay for women, guarantee of a wage to every adult worker based on the average cost of supporting a family of five persons, provision for soldiers, sailors, munition workers and others similarly affected by the end of the war and government insurance for all citizens. The new party went on record as opposing prohibition.

British Trade Union Funds.

For the third year in succession the British chief registrar of friendly societies reports a net reduction in the number of trade unions. At the close of 1916 there were 674, as compared with 677 in 1915 and 690 in 1914, with a membership of 3,703,001, which represented an increase during the year of considerably over 225,000. The chief registrar comments on the tendency to organize the workers into large homogeneous bodies rather than to have a large number of smaller unions. On the other hand the average size of the employers' unions has decreased during the last five years.

Gary Predicts Great Prosperity.

An era of great prosperity for America during the next five years was predicted by E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation board of directors. "There will be readjustments in prices and wages, too, eventually," Mr. Gary said, "but the readjustments in wages will come slowly and in such a way that labor will recognize their justice. If employers are fair to labor I have no doubt labor will reciprocate."

WAR TAX BILL READY

Measure Submitted to Congress for Final Action.

Raises Six Billions in 1919, War Excess Profits and Incomes Bearing Bulk of Burden.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The conference agreement on the long delayed war revenue bill has been submitted to congress. The American people are presented with their prospective federal tax budget for 1919 and ensuing years—something over $6,000,000,000 this year and $4,000,000,000 the year after, subject to the revision of future rates expected to be undertaken by the next congress.

The conference report, presented to the house by majority leader, Claude Kitchin, is now regarded as assured of adoption by both house and senate and of approval by the president. It thus provides the future American tax yield, which now is about $4,370,000,000 besides this year's tax levy of about $5,000,000,000; further treasury needs to be raised by bonds and other means, are estimated by the treasury at about $12,000,000,000.

Senate View Generally Prevails.

Except for slightly increased war excess profits rates for 1919 and corporations income tax rates for 1920, virtually all the rates as revised in the bill passed by the senate are approved by the conferees and remain in the final conference draft. Like the original house bill and the senate's revision, the bulk of the taxes are levied on war excess profits of corporations and on incomes, individual and corporate. Rates of the senate on transportation, beverages, cigars and tobacco, amusement admissions, club dues, luxuries, and semiluxuries, stamp and special taxes, all substantially were adopted by the conferees, while the house rates on estates and insurance were reinstated.

BILL TAXES ALL WHO CAN PAY

The married man drawing $3,000 a year will pay a $60 income tax unless he has children, and the single man with the same income will have to donate $120 to his Uncle Sam.

At $4,000 the rate jumps to 12 per cent, and the surtaxes begin to pile on at $5,000 until they reach 65 per cent on incomes over $10,000.

American Starves to Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—W. D. Childs, for many years chief representative of the Western Union Telegraph company in Russia, is dead of starvation in Petrograd, according to a message received here by Dr. George A. Simons, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church in Russia and pastor of the American church in Petrograd. The news came in a cable message from Miss Anna Eklund, deaconess of the American church in Petrograd.

SHALL WAGES OR PRICES BE FIRST?

HIGH COST OF LIVING PROBLEM IS WHERE TO BEGIN MAKING THE REDUCTIONS.

LABOR WON'T ACCEPT A CUT

Cessation of Employment Complicating the Matter—Some of Uncle Sam's Unused Preparations for Longer War—Just Beginning to Fight.

BY ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—A great problem in reaching reductions in the high cost of living is to find out where these reductions shall begin; whether the prices of food and other necessities shall be reduced first, or whether there shall first be a cut in wages. Labor interests everywhere are strenuously objecting to making the first sacrifice, either in the reduction of wages or in laying off men. According to telegrams which have been coming to Washington from various parts of the country, it appears that there has been a great cessation of employment and many thousands of men have been laid off in various cities and towns in many kinds of industry. It is not expected that laying off men and stopping production will soon reduce the cost of living, although in time it will tend in that direction.

Discussion of the bill appropriating $100,000,000 for the starving people of Europe developed the possibility of starvation and bread lines in this country as a result of stopping production and the consequent lack of employment for hundreds of thousands of workers. An intimation was made that it was quite possible that men in this country would object seriously to the shipment of foodstuffs abroad if their wives and children were without food.

The United States would have made a much more wonderful showing in the war if it had lasted six or eight months longer. It is not generally known that there was enough gas manufactured in the United States and now held for future disposition to have spread all over Germany. That gas was to have been shipped during the winter, to be used in the spring campaign. And then we were getting ready to go much farther in the way of war on the sea. It is altogether probable that in spite of mines and other obstructions the German coast would have been attacked. The United States had 200,000 sailors who never went to sea, but were in training, while there were contracts out for thousands of naval craft that could have been used not only against submarines, but against the German coast. In the language of one of our heroes of long ago, we were "just beginning to fight."

Vice President Marshall, complying with a standing order of the senate, this year designated Senator Fredlinghusen of New Jersey to read Washington's farewell address on the 22d of February. The late Senator Hoar of Massachusetts started this custom more than 30 years ago and it has been followed ever since. Sometimes one senator and sometimes another has been designated. Fredlinghusen is such a good natured individual that quite a number of his friends took advantage of the designation and joked him about it, giving him advice as to how he should read the address, and what kind of gestures he should make, and suggesting that he might take a few electionary lessons if he were not quite sure of himself.

"I am going to tell Marshall," said Fredlinghusen, "that while it is no doubt a great honor he has tendered me, I am inclined to believe that he sent me a loving cup filled with mud."

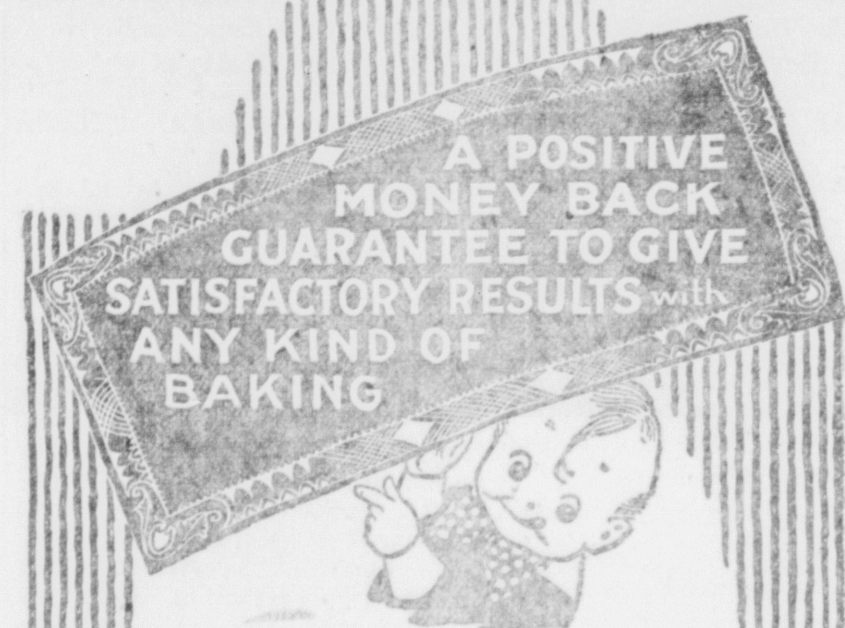

Speaker Clark is one very prominent man who does not believe that an extra session of congress is necessary. "I think we are going to get through," remarked Champ, when the subject was mentioned. No doubt the speaker would like to avoid an extra session. Congress has been in almost continuous session during the time he has been speaker.

Congressman Miller of Minnesota told the house that during the last year and a half he has given more time to studying the Russian situation than any other question. Miller blamed the tangle in Russia on the quality of diplomacy dispensed by the ambassadors of the nations opposed to Germany, including this country. "In my opinion," he declared, "there do not exist in the history of diplomacy in this century two periods and two places where greater blunders, with more far-reaching consequences, occurred than in Greece and Russia, and Russia is the worse of the two."

Everyone seems to have a different idea of just what did most to bring about the Russian mix-up.

The proposal to pay the widow of Theodore Roosevelt a pension of $5,000 a year brought out the fact that it has been the custom of congress to pension widows of presidents; not in all cases, but six have been so recognized. They were the widows of Presidents Polk, Tyler, Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, all of whom received $5,000. Other presidential widows were voted lump sums, in several cases $25,000.
